Swinburne's Principles of Literature and Art; a Study in Victorian Criticism and Aesthetics Robert Peters,1965 Victorian Poetry Isobel Armstrong,2019-01-30 In Victorian Poetry Poetry Poetics and Politics Isobel Armstrong rescued Victorian poetry from its longstanding sepia image as a moralised form of romantic verse and unearthed its often subversive critique of nineteenth century culture and politics In this uniquely comprehensive and theoretically astute new edition Armstrong provides an entirely new preface that notes the key advances in the criticism of Victorian poetry since her classic work was first published in 1993 A new chapter on the alternative fin de si cle sees Armstrong discuss Michael Field Rudyard Kipling Alice Meynell and a selection of Hardy lyrics The extensive bibliography acts as a key resource for students and scholars alike

Swinburne's Principles of Literature and Art: The Crowns of Apollo Robert Lewis Peters, 1965 Literature in English Mark Hawkins-Dady, 2012-12-06 Reader's Guide Literature in English provides expert guidance to and critical analysis of the vast number of books available within the subject of English literature from Anglo Saxon times to the current American British and Commonwealth scene It is designed to help students teachers and librarians choose the most The Ouest for Shakespeare Jeffrey Kahan, 2016-12-11 This book traces the appropriate books for research and study formation and impact of the New Shakspere Society created in 1873 which dedicated itself to solving the mysteries of Shakespeare's authorship by way of science This promise however was undermined not only by the antics of its director Frederick J Furnivall but also by the inexactitudes of the tests Jeffrey Kahan puzzles out how a society geared towards science guickly devolved into a series of grudge matches Nonetheless the New Shakspere Society set the bibliographical and biographical agenda for the next century an unusual legacy for an organization that was rife with intrigue enmity and incompetence lives were ruined lawyers consulted and scholarship mostly bad produced and published The Mother Archetype in Arnold's Merope and Swinburne's Atalanta in Calydon Nadean Bishop,1972 Where Nature Ends Susan E. Lorsch, 1983 This critical study argues that certain writers generally separated into Victorian and early modern categories actually share a drive to capture landscape in language and that this drive reflects a common view of reality and the self

The Modern Portrait Poem Frances Dickey, 2012-06-29 In The Modern Portrait Poem Frances Dickey recovers the portrait as a poetic genre from the 1860s through the 1920s Combining literary and art history she examines the ways Dante Gabriel Rossetti Algernon Swinburne and J M Whistler transformed the genre of portraiture in both painting and poetry She then shows how their new ways of looking at and thinking about the portrait subject migrated across the Atlantic to influence Ezra Pound T S Eliot Williams Carlos Williams Amy Lowell E E Cummings and other poets These poets creatively exposed the Victorian portrait to new influences ranging from Manet's realism to modern dance Futurism and American avant garde art They also condensed expanded and combined the genre with other literary modes including epitaph pastoral and Bildungsroman Dickey challenges the tendency to view Modernism as a break with the past and as a transition from aural to visual orientation. She argues that the Victorian poets and painters inspired the new generation of Modernists to test their vision of Aestheticism against their perception of modernity and the relationship between image and text. In bridging historical periods national boundaries and disciplinary distinctions Dickey makes a case for the continuity of this genre over the Victorian Modernist divide and from Britain to the United States in a time of rapid change in the arts.
