Cruel Compassion Psychiatric Control Of Societys Unwanted:

Cruel Compassion Thomas Szasz, 1998-02-01 Cruel Compassion is the capstone of Thomas Szasz's critique of psychiatric practices. Reexamining psychiatric interventions from a cultural, historical, and political-economic perspective, Szasz demonstrates that the main problem that faces mental health policy makers today is adult dependency. Millions of Americans diagnosed as mentally ill are drugged and confined by doctors for noncriminal conduct; go legally unpunished for the crimes they commit and are supported by the state not because they are sick but because they are unproductive and unwanted. Obsessed with the twin beliefs that misbehavior is a medical disorder and that the duty of the state is to protect adults from themselves, we have replaced criminal punitive sentences with civil therapeutic programs. The result is the relentless loss of individual liberty, erosion of personal responsibility, and destruction of the security of persons and property—symptoms of the transformation of a Constitutional Republic into a Therapeutic State unconstrained by the rule of law. Szasz shows convincingly that not until we separate therapy from coercion, much as the founders separated theology from coercion, shall we be able to get a handle on our seemingly intractable psychiatric and social problems. No contemporary thinker has done more than Thomas Szasz to expose the myths and misconceptions surrounding insanity and the practice of psychiatry. Now in Cruel Compassion, he gives us a sobering look at some of our most cherished notions about our humane treatment of society's unwanted and perhaps more importantly about ourselves as a compassionate and democratic people. Review of Existential Psychology and Psychiatry, 1997

The Radicalism Handbook John Button, 1995 Contains over 350 biographies of political activists, suffragists, pacifists, campaigners for civil, human, and gay rights, etc. Sociology: A Down to Earth Approach James M. Henslin, Adam M. Possamai, Alpha L. Possamai-Inesedy, Tim Marjoribanks, Katriona Elder, 2015-05-20 James Henslin has always been able to share the excitement of sociology with his acclaimed down-to-earth approach and personal writing style that highlight the sociology of everyday life and its relevance to students' lives. Adapted for students studying within Australia, this text, now in a second edition, has been made even more relevant and engaging to students. With wit, personal reflection, and illuminating examples, the local author team shares their passion for sociology, promotes sociology to students, and entices them to delve deeper into this exciting science. Six central themes run throughout this text: down-to-earth sociology, globalisation, cultural diversity, critical thinking, the new technology, and the growing influence of the mass media on our lives. These themes are especially useful for introducing the controversial topics that make studying sociology such a lively, exciting activity.

The Hutchinson Encyclopedia of Biography Christine Stephanie Nicholls, 1996 This biographical dictionary contains 10,000 biographies supplemented with 2,000 quotations chosen to reveal what major figures thought about themselves and what others thought about them. It also contains 800 reading lists to guide readers through the biographies and memoirs.

Someone to Talk to Tom C. Allen, 2000 This impassioned account of life on the mean streets of Vancouver's Downtown Eastside chronicles the grim spirals of poverty marginalization and despair that propel people from their homes onto the streets and into the ambit of emergency shelters like Triage Construction of Power and Authority in Psychiatry Phil Barker, Chris Stevens, 2000 Psychiatric services are facing a crisis in the post modern world The organisational failure of community care has been accompanied by a growing confidence in user led initiatives and a growth in alternatives to the paternalism of psychiatric medicine Construction of Power and Authority in Psychiatry explores some of the key philosophies and practical issues that will concern all mental health professionals as they move forward into the new millennium Featuring contributions by leading international authorities from psychiatric medicine clinical psychology psychiatric nursing psychotherapy and social work this exciting new book offers a careful critique of some of the philosophical and moral benchmarks for contemporary practice It also provides an appreciation of the wide bandwidth of views representing the differing voices of authority within mental health Takes the debate on personal liberty and compassionate psychiatry into a new realm of professional reflection Explores issues such as race and culture in psychiatric practice hearing the voice of the psychiatric user the virtue of psychiatric diagnosis human values in a technocratic culture alternative approaches to caring and relating to madness Discusses the implications of both caring for and controlling patients as well as which type of approach is appropriate and or realistic given financial and practical constraints Examines the influence of ethical and legal issues on the delivery of psychiatric care The Construction of Power and Authority in Psychiatry will be of major interest to all students and lecturers in the social sciences especially in the fields of psychiatric medicine nursing social work and psychology Deviant Behavior, 98-99 Lawrence M. Salinger, 1998 Psychology 96/97, 1995 Arts & Humanities Citation Index, 1994 Social Problems for the Twenty-first Century J. John Palen, 2001 This contemporary text reflects the concerns and problems of the new century and the new millennium It presents the latest sociological data knowledge and opinions as accurately and as fairly as possible so that any instructor regardless of his or her theoretical orientation will have a trustworthy base from which to elaborate disagree or discuss This text builds on students natural interest in social problems and encourages them to develop both a sociological perspective and a sociological imagination that allows them to examine social problems in a critical fashion Future Survey Annual, 1996 Path to Collective Madness Dipak K. Gupta, 2001-06-30 Why did the Rwandan genocide take place How could parents feed their own children drinks laced with poison in Jonestown As we see many parts of the world being engulfed in fratricidal frenzy we wonder if it can happen in this country Gupta examines contemporary cases of genocide and mass murder and seeks to explain why certain societies are more prone to these actions and others are relatively immune Gupta sees a dialectical tension between our two identities the self and the collective The end of the medieval period was marked by the emergence of individualism in Europe With time the march of individualism engulfed the entire Western world and permeated every aspect of its culture tradition and academic paradigm Neoclassical economics is the embodiment of this single minded pursuit of the rationality of individualism However our psychobiological evolution has also imbued us with the irrepressible desire to form groups and to act upon its welfare The reason for this eternal conflict lies in our own struggle with our two identities When the pendulum swings to the extreme end of collectivism genocide and other forms of social abnormalities collective madness occur When we move too far into individualism people tend to seek something greater beyond selfish pursuits Through his panoramic view Gupta provides an explanation for both social order and political pathology that will be of interest to students scholars and other researchers involved with ethnic conflict collective behavior and conflict resolution
