Cry For Paradise:

Cry for Paradise Diana Stuart, 1981      Kāmil Al-Ziyarāt Ibn Qūlawayh, 2008

Note from the Author about the Book In the Name of All h Most Gracious Most Merciful Praise is due to All h who is worthy of praise and has authority over it He guides the people toward it praising Him and rewards them and compensates them for it an increasing praise which does not vanish nor end His might is exalted and His sovereignty is great He is exalted His names are sacred and His blessings are continuous Everything is humiliated in His Awe and is humble before His Ruling and Divinity One cannot describe His characteristics and the imagination cannot fathom knowing Him He is as He has described Himself the God the One the Only the Eternal He is not begotten nor does he beget and there is none like Him And I testify that there is no god but All h He is alone and He has no partners And I testify that Mu ammad is His Slave and His Messenger He All h has given him the Prophet the platform on the Day of Judgment honoured him with innumerable merits dignified him with prophethood supported him with miracles and manifested Isl m through him He has elevated him above all of His creation from among the inhabitants of His heavens His earths His lands and His oceans He has elevated him to a position which no one can ascend to and no one can describe He has elevated the Prophets family above all of creation through him and He has appointed them as His Manifesting Decisive Proofs He supported them with Imamate and made obeying them mandatory on everyone who follows His religion believes in His Oneness and testifies to the prophethood of His Messenger He has made their merits such that no one can describe them and no one can truly praise them The most intelligent ones cannot truly understand their merits and no one can wrongfully desire their unique merits He has appointed them as the stars for the earth through whom people are guided and prevented from going astray and through whom confusion and spiritual blindness are kept away And He has appointed them as the pillars of the earth who prevent it from destroying its inhabitants He has explained their merits on the tongue of His Prophet and made loving them obligatory on His slaves in His Speaking Book and through the tongue of His Truthful Prophet by saying and He is the most honourable one to say anything Say O Mu ammad I do not ask you anything for the toils of prophethood except love for my nearest kin 42 23 The Prophet ordered the people to love them and stressed seeking nearness to them being kind to them and going to their Ziy rah during their lives and after their death He mentioned such incredible merits and rewards for going to their Ziy rah that these merits and rewards are beyond that which can be fathomed by the human imagination counted by all of the created beings or truly described However his nation did the opposite of that which All h and His Messenger had ordered Instead his nation killed those whom they were ordered to love expelled those whom they were ordered to obey and abandoned those to whose Ziy rah they were ordered to go They frightened those who accepted the orders of All h willingly and who fulfilled them based on their ability and the circumstances of the time They antagonized them for going to Ziy rah Despite this they expect to be guided to the right path they believe that they are the followers of the correct path and that they fulfill that which has been made obligatory on them day and night And they expect the intercession of their Prophet on the Appointed Day of Judgment Nay Their Prophet will be their enemy on the Promised Day He will seek revenge against them at the time of reward and punishment on the Day of Judgment in front of the Lord of the lords Verily He is Blessed and Exalted far above oppressing the slaves Lo Your Lord is ever watchful 89 14 I will explain to you 1 may Allah extend your life the rewards which All h gives to those who go to the Ziy rah of His Prophet and his family through that which has been narrated only from them the Ahlul Bayt against the will of those who deny their merits those who reject them and antagonize them and their followers based on this I seek help from All h in this and rely on Him He is sufficient for me in all affairs and He is the best One on whom one can rely Verily that which led to writing this book was your repeated requests to do so as well as my knowledge of the rewards and the nearness which I can attain to All h His Messenger Ali F imah and the Imams by writing this book and to the rest of the believers through publishing these narrations and sharing them with my brothers from among the believers I started to think about this compilation and focused my energy on it and asked All h the Blessed and the Exalted for help until I finished compiling it using only the narrations of the Imams I did not include anything which has been narrated from anyone else for verily that which has been narrated from the Ahlul Bayt is sufficient there is no need to narrate anything from others We acknowledge that we cannot encompass everything which has been narrated from them about this topic Ziy rah or about any other topic for that matter Furthermore I have only narrated that which was reported to me by the trustworthy ones from among our companions may All h s Mercy be upon them and I did not include anything which has been reported by unknown or unreliable sources who are not well known for their knowledge and narrations I named this book K mil Al Ziy r t and I have divided it into many chapters Each chapter is about a separate topic all of the narrations in the chapter are related to the topic This has been done to prevent confusing the reader The reader does not need to worry about how to find something specific that he may be looking for Unfortunately this has been the case with the books of some other authors who have named a chapter using a specific title but have nevertheless included that which is not related to it in that chapter to such an extent that sometimes there are chapters in their books which do not contain even one ad th which clearly explains the topic of the chapter The reason I have organized the book in this specific way is to make it easier for those who are looking for a ad th about a particular topic The reader can simply look at the titles of the chapters and find the ad th about the topic in question The book was also organized so that the readers those who study this book and those who listen to the narrations in this book do not become weary looking for something specific Finally this work was compiled to inform people of that which All h has chosen for His friends from among those who go to the Ziy rah of the grave of usain and the rest of the Masters and to increase their desire to attain nearness to them and to go to their Ziy rah through seeking the great rewards and victory which All h the Great and Almighty has prepared for them I ask All h for that which He is worthy of giving and I ask Him through His most beloved names to send His blessing on Mu ammad and his family and to reward me for this book with that which I have hoped for with His Mercy and His Generosity and I ask him not to deprive me of it May All h s blessing be upon Mu ammad and his righteous and chosen family 1 The author has not mentioned the name of this person     The Thousand
