BOOK JACKET. Department for Work and Pensions. Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: Committee of Public Accounts, 2007-01-23. The Department for Work and Pensions (DWP) provides services to some 28 million people and despite the development of new technology, printed materials such as leaflets play an important role in ensuring that customers are informed of services and entitlements. Following on from a NAO report HC 797 session 2005-06, ISBN 9780102936728, published in January 2006, the Committee's report focuses on three issues: managing the process for producing accurate leaflets; accessibility of information for a diverse range of customers; and making information available to the public. Findings include: i) the DWP has reduced its total number of published leaflets from 245 to 178 and is committed to making an overall reduction of 100; ii) the DWP is unable to determine the exact cost of producing leaflets, which has been estimated at 31 million in 2004-05; iii) around 40 per cent of the 27 different leaflets tested by the NAO across the country were out of date and all 13 of the Department's key leaflets tested required a reading age higher than the national average; and iv) leaflets are not easily accessible to groups such as those with disabilities or non-English speakers and copies of four core departmental leaflets examined were available at only 11 per cent of key non-departmental locations such as libraries and Citizens Advice offices visited by the NAO.
