Cspr Philo Theology Discourse:

A Discourse on African Philosophy Christian B. N. Gade, 2017-04-18 Many have argued that ubuntu was a formative influence on the post apartheid Truth and Reconciliation Commission TRC South Africa's famous transitional justice mechanism A Discourse on African Philosophy A New Perspective on Ubuntu and Transitional Justice in South Africa challenges and contextualizes this view in a way that not only provides new findings and reflections on ubuntu and the TRC but also contributes to the field of African philosophy One of Christian B N Gade's key findings founded on qualitative interviews in South Africa is that some former TRC commissioners and committee members question the importance of ubuntu in the TRC process Another is that there are several differing and historically developing interpretations of ubuntu some of which have evident political implications and reflect non factual and creative uses of history Thus ubuntu is not a shared cultural heritage in the ethnophilosophical sense of a static property characterizing a group In fact throughout this book Gade argues that the ethnophilosophical approach to African philosophy as a static group property is highly problematic Gade's research presents an alternative collective discourse on African philosophy collective in the sense that it does not focus on any single individual in particular that takes differences historical developments and social contexts seriously This book will be of interest to scholars in African philosophy transitional justice politics and cultural heritage and law in South Africa related to community justice and civic responsibility Bell's sensitivity to and engagement with the complications of cross cultural understandings help non African readers connect with African culture and thought Africanity and Ubuntu as Decolonizing Discourse Otrude Nontobeko Moyo, 2021-02-07 This book explores and discusses emerging perspectives of Ubuntu from the vantage point of ordinary people and connects it to human rights and decolonizing discourses It engages a decolonizing perspective in writing about Ubuntu as an indigenous concept The foregrounding argument is that one's positionality speaks to particular interests that may continue to sustain oppressions instead of confronting and dismantling them Therefore a decolonial approach to writing indigenous experiences begins with transparency about the researcher's own positionality The emerging perspectives of this volume are contextual highlighting the need for a critical reading for emerging transformative and alternative visions in human relations and social structures The Philosophy of Religion George Trumbull Ladd, 1909 The Gospel of the World's Divine Order; Or, Free Religious Thoughts Douglas Campbell (of Edinburgh.), 1873 Catalogue of Printed Books in the Library of the British Museum ... British Museum.
