Cuba Diaries Isadora Tattlin, 2002-05-17 Isadora Tattlin is the American wife of a European energy consultant posted to Havana in the 1990s Wisely the witty Mrs Tattlin began a diary the day her husband informed her of their new assignment One of the first entries is her shopping list of things to take including six gallons of shampoo For although the Tattlins were provided with a wonderful big house in Havana complete with a staff of seven there wasn t much else money could buy in a country whose shelves are nearly bare. The record of her daily life in Cuba raising her two small children entertaining her husband's clients among them Fidel Castro and his ministers and minions and contending with chronic shortages of well everything on the street tourists are hounded not for money but for soap is literally stunning Adventurous and intuitive Tattlin squeezed every drop of juice both tasty and repellent from her experience She traveled wherever she could it s not easy there are few road signs or appealing places to stay or eat She befriended artists attended concerts and plays She gave dozens of parties attended dozens more Cuba Diaries vividly explicit empathetic often hilarious takes the reader deep inside this island country only ninety miles from the U S where the average doctor s salary is eleven dollars a month The reader comes away appalled by the deprivation and drawn by the romance of a weirdly nostalgic Cuba frozen in the 1950s Cuba Julia Sweig, 2016 Informative pithy and lucidly written Cuba What Everyone Needs to Know 3rd edition is the best compact reference on Cuba's internal politics its often fraught relationship with the United States and its shifting relationship with the global community Cuba Julia E.
