Amériques Transculturelles

Afef Benessaïeh, 2010-03-03 La transculturalité constitue une nouvelle façon de concevoir les cultures c'est-à-dire non plus comme des lots distincts mais plutôt comme des réseaux interactifs de sens et de pratiques Ces identités transculturelles qui n'entrent pas aisément dans le seul moule d'une nation ou d'une ethnie abondent particulièrement dans les Amériques par exemple les Chicanos les Franco-Ontariens les Créoles et les immigrants de deuxième et de troisième génération De Québec à l'Argentine cet ouvrage se penche sur ces identités qui se construisent au carrefour de la similitude et de la différence

Transculturality is a new way of viewing culture that sees cultures not as separate islands that are easily differentiated from one another but as connected and interacting webs of meaning and practice The Americas in particular offer many examples of transcultural identities that do not fit easily into one national or ethnic mold Chicanos Franco-Ontarians Creoles and second and third generation immigrants From Quebec to Argentina this volume explores these identities which create themselves in a space between sameness and difference

Things with a History Héctor Hoyos, 2019-10-29 Can rubber trees silicone dolls corpses soil subatomic particles designer shoes and discarded computers become the protagonists of contemporary literature and what does this tell us about the relationship between humans and objects In Things with a History Hector Hoyos argues that the roles of objects in recent Latin American fiction offer a way to integrate materialisms old and new transforming our understanding of how things shape social and political relations Discussing contemporary authors including Roberto Bolaño Ariel Magnus César Aira and Blanca Wiethichter as well as classic writers such as Fernando Ortiz and José Eustasio Rivera Hoyos considers how Latin American literature has cast things as repositories of history with an emphasis on the radically transformed circulation of artifacts under globalization He traces a tradition of thought transcultural materialism that draws from the capacity of literary language to defamiliarize our place within the tangible world Hoyos contrasts new materialisms with historical materialist approaches exposing how recent tendencies sometimes sidestep concepts such as primitive accumulation commodity fetishism and conspicuous consumption which have been central to Latin American history and literature He contends that an integrative approach informed by both historical and new materialisms can balance seeing things as a means to reveal the true nature of social relations with appraisals of things in their autonomy Things with a History simultaneously offers a sweeping account of the material turn in recent Latin American culture and reinvigorates social theory and cultural critique

Afro-Cuban Traditional Music and Transculturation Nolan Warden, 2007 How are new musical traditions formed This is the central question guiding this book on an Afro-Cuban ceremony sometimes called cajón palomero a spirit possession ritual that has been developed in Cuba over the past few decades Cajón ceremonies are deftly sculpted from a wealth of religious influences including Santería Palo Espiritismo and Catholicism Grupo Cuero y Cajón the case study for this book provides insight into how songs and rhythms are created for these ceremonies while also bringing together older separate traditions into a new whole This process of transculturation requires preservation and innovation but also shows musicians as integral to the creation of religious practices. As the first work in any language to study Cajón ceremonies, this book documents the songs used in the ceremonies and the eclectic drum rhythms that accompany them. This book is geared towards scholars in the fields of ethnomusicology, anthropology, and religious studies but will also be of interest to the general reader wanting to learn more about Afro-American culture. Three CDs and a DVD to accompany this book can be found at the author's website www.nolanwarden.com.

Origins of Cuban Music and Dance Benjamin L. Lapidus, 2008. Origins of Cuban Music and Dance Chang is the first in-depth study of chang, a style of music and dance in Guantánamo, Cuba. Chang is analogous to blues in the United States and is a crucible of Cuban Creole culture. Benjamin Lapidus describes chang and its relationship to the roots of son, Cuba's national genre, and the style of music that contributed to the development of salsa in Eastern Cuba. He also highlights the connections between Afro-Haitian music and Cuban popular music through chang, connections with the Caribbean that have been largely overlooked in the past. After an initial historical discussion about the region of Guantánamo and the interconnectedness of its various musical styles, with a focus on chang, Lapidus discusses the technical aspects of the genre as practiced within the region and beyond. He considers the socio-historical importance of its lyrics, presenting numerous musical transcriptions that explain how the music is structured, as well as providing background stories to songs. In a chapter unique to this book and a first in Cuban musicology and ethnography, Lapidus describes years of festivals and musical competitions to show how local musical identity takes shape, particularly when encountering national narratives of music history. The volume concludes with a comparison between chang and son, as well as a bibliography, discography, and videography.
