Reflective Practice in English Language Teaching Steve Mann, Steve Walsh, 2017-06-27 Offering a unique data led evidence based approach to reflective practice in English language teaching this book brings together theory research and practice in an accessible way to demonstrate what reflective practice looks like and how it is undertaken in a range of contexts Readers learn how to do and to research reflective practice in their own settings Through the use of data dialogue and appropriate tools the authors show how reflective practice can be used as an ongoing teaching tool that supports professional self development

Challenging Future Practice Possibilities Joy Higgs, Steven Cork, Debbie Horsfall, 2019-03-25 What might the futures of practice be like is far from a straightforward question Emphasising the before the word future implies one future But futures thinkers have identified a range of futures that people think about In this book we reflect on possible probable and preferable futures in relation to practice and work Readers are invited to consider how their own engagement in shaping possible futures will support ways of working that they deem preferable even those they can hardly imagine Challenging Future Practice Possibilities also examines influences that are maintaining the status quo and others that are pushing interest driven change Authors consider the major challenges that practice and practitioners face today such as wicked problems fears for the future and complex demands and opportunities posed by the digital revolution A number of examples of future oriented work directions such as protean careers and artificial intelligence enhancing or even replacing human workforces are considered along with concerns like the vulnerability of many work situations and workers In some cases workers and employers alike are unprepared for these challenges while others see adapting to these situations as yet another pathway of practice futures evolution

Handbook of Research on Contemporary Storytelling Methods Across New Media and Disciplines Mih?e?, Lorena Clara, Andreescu, Raluca, Dimitriu, Anda, 2021-01-15 Stories are everywhere around us from the ads on TV or music video clips to the more sophisticated stories told by books or movies Everything comes wrapped in a story and the means employed to weave the narrative thread are just as important as the story itself In this context there is a need to understand the role storytelling plays in contemporary society which has changed drastically in recent decades Modern global society is no longer exclusively dominated by the time tested narrative media such as literature or films because new media such as videogames or social platforms have changed the way we understand create and replicate stories The Handbook of Research on Contemporary Storytelling Methods Across New Media and Disciplines is a comprehensive reference book that provides the relevant theoretical framework that concerns storytelling in modern society as well as the newest and most varied analyses and case studies in the field The chapters of this extensive volume follow the construction and interpretation of stories across a plethora of contemporary media and disciplines By bringing together radical forms of storytelling in traditional disciplines and methods of telling stories across newer media this book intersects themes that include interactive storytelling and narrative theory across advertisements social media and knowledge sharing platforms among others It is targeted towards professionals researchers and students working or studying in the fields of narratology literature media studies marketing and communication anthropology religion or film studies Moreover for interested executives and entrepreneurs or prospective influencers the chapters dedicated to marketing and social media may also provide insights into both the theoretical and the practical aspects of harnessing the power of storytelling in order to create a cohesive and impactful online image
