that we are presented not simply with a vision of how things could be better in our society but with concrete exemplars of how we can build such a better world It is in recognition of this fact that I have chosen the title of this chapter as it emphasizes that while the tradition of Utopian literature is the lineation of a supposedly idea world which exists no place u topos in Greek these visions can be an inspiration for quite practical activities on the ground as steps towards their realization As Wilde notes in the quote above this is a never ending quest as with each achievement we recognize that there are further bridges to cross and places to be visited Discovering Computers 2007 Gary B.
