Youtube in the Language Classroom Sebastian Altenhoff, 2011-02 Seminar paper from the year 2009 in the subject Didactics for the subject English Pedagogy Literature Studies grade 1 0 University of Duisburg Essen Anglophone Studien language English abstract According to Ellis learning a language means making use of the language in R schoff Wolff 1999 54 This not only implies the claim of free spontaneous communication but also of dealing with and of experiencing the target language as such The claim of experiencing the target language in the language classroom leads to a growing interest in the quality of the materials used According to Wolff 1998 any kind of learning no matter whether verbal or non verbal has to be embedded in a rich learning environment that has not been reduced concerning its complexity Authenticity is thus one of the main criteria in order to evaluate the quality of materials This criterion applies to all materials such as literature that have not been changed for the purpose of teaching and learning of course In this thesis however using authentic video in the language classroom will be considered and analysed according to its didactic benefits Integrating video in the language classroom does not necessarily mean having to watch and to analyse a whole film of ninety minutes Thanks to Web 2 0 applications such as YouTube the accessibility of short video clips advertisements or film excerpts has become very simple Because of the growing popularity of this webpage and of integrating Web 2 0 applications in the learning environments in general my entire analysis will relate to videos taken from YouTube This thesis aims to provide both a theoretical part I and a practical investigation part II of the topic in order to create a framework for analysis I will first of all give a short overview of the didactic benefits of integrating authentic video in the language classroom in general This survey is followed by a short description of the basic ideas of YouTube

Social Innovation and Sustainability Transition Geoff Desa, Xiangping

Jia,2022-11-09 This book uses a historical and modern lens to reimagine the role that Extension could potentially play in catalyzing reciprocal co learning relationships between Land Grant Universities and their diverse local constituencies The establishment of statewide extension systems was once seen as a way to ensure that Land Grant Universities would be accessible and responsive to all of a state s residents Extension systems continue to offer a front door to a major public university in almost every county of the United States but they tend to be viewed primarily as a way to translate science or distribute information from the university to the public This books argues for the importance of Extension and shows that we are conceiving of this system too narrowly Only by retelling the stories of the Extension and getting people to see themselves as part of the story can we imagine a different future in which state universities and land grant colleges engage more authentically and equitably in two way relationships with their local constituents in catalyzing reciprocal co learning relationships between Land Grant Universities and their diverse local constituencies Chapter Palatable disruption the politics of plant milk chapter Feeding the melting pot inclusive strategies for the multi ethnic city chapter A carrot isn t a carrot isn t a carrot tracing value in alternative practices of food exchange chapter Virtualizing the good life reworking narratives of agrarianism and the rural idyll in a computer game and chapter Workable utopias for social change through inclusion and empowerment Community supported agriculture CSA in Wales as social innovation are available open access under a Creative Commons Attribution 4 0 International license via link springer.com Webbing Cyberfeminist Practice Kristine Blair,Radhika Gajjala,Christine Tulley,2009 This is the first book collection to devote itself exclusively to issues related to women s lives in a culture of technology As such it is a key addition to feminist new media scholarship in computers and composition The book holds special appeal as the editors have put into conversation chapters of authors from diverse disciplines The value that is placed on cross disciplinary work is further demonstrated in the mix of theoretical pedagogical and rhetorical research that enriches the book in its entirety To explore the variety of cyberfeminist webs the collection has been organized around three themes Chapters in Forming Virtual Kinships examine cyberfeminist practices that do not neatly operate in standard academic communities such as classrooms or cultural centers instead foregrounding the extent to which female communities evolve around aspects of women s daily lives as mothers consumers and workers Chapters in Redrawing Academic Boundaries offer a glimpse of practice within more defined pedagogical spaces providing a sense of the ways in which classroom and community network boundaries are often blurred and disrupted Last the text moves to explore how cyberfeminist webs both on the beyond the borders of standard spaces are developed using a variety of theoretical standpoints International Business Shad Morris,James Oldroyd,2020-08-25 Leveraging their extensive background at multi national corporations co authors Shad Morris and James Oldroyd created an International Business course that is current concise and easy to implement As instructors themselves the authors focused on engaging pedagogy that prepares students for the global marketplace and created interactive resources to deepen the learning experience This second edition of International Business includes extensive updates including coverage on important topics like COVID 19 Brexit and the US China trade war Additionally the WileyPLUS course provides just in time resources like chapter introductory videos whiteboard animations cases case application problems adaptive practice and more to help students apply their learning and think critically
