Artificial Intelligence and Public Law Brendan McGurk KC, Joe Tomlinson, 2025-06-26 The Government's use of algorithmic based decision making is rapidly expanding across policy areas including immigration social security regulation security and policing This book provides the first comprehensive analysis of how public law applies to the use of artificial intelligence and automation in the public sector in England and Wales Starting with an accessible account of the nature of AI and automated systems being increasingly deployed in the public sector the book covers the various legal regimes which regulate their use It considers how the principles of judicial review might be deployed to challenge automated decision making by public authorities It also explains how equality law human rights law procurement law data protection law and private law apply to government use of AI and automation This book is a vital guide for practitioners in both private practice and government and for anyone navigating this quickly changing complex and uncertain environment Managing

Healthcare Transformation Towards P5 Medicine Bernd G.M.E Blobel, Dipak Kalra, 2023-09-29 Health and social care systems around the world are facing radical organizational methodological and technological paradigm changes to meet the requirements for improving quality and safety of care as well as efficiency and efficacy of care processes In this they are trying to manage the challenges of ongoing demographic changes towards aging multi diseased societies development of human resources a health and social services consumerism medical and biomedical progress and exploding costs for health related R D as well as health services delivery Furthermore they intend to achieve sustainability of global health systems by transforming them towards intelligent adaptive and proactive systems focusing on health and wellness with optimized quality and safety outcomes Farmer's Advocate and Home Journal, 1909 Farm and Home News, 1966-11 AI in

Primary Care, An Issue of Primary Care: Clinics in Office Practice Vincent Morelli, 2025-10-28 In this issue of Primary Care Clinics in Office Practice guest editor Dr Vincent Morelli brings his considerable expertise to the topic of AI in Primary Care Top experts demystify artificial intelligence and introduce basic concepts of AI in primary care including how to understand AI outputs acknowledge limitations and reveal key AI technologies relevant to healthcare Additional articles discuss how AI can aid in patient diagnosis management and workflows Contains 13 relevant practice oriented topics including AI in risk assessment and prevention AI and social determinants of health AI in diagnosis and clinical decision making integrating AI solutions into administrative medicine and practice workflows ethical and legal considerations the future of AI in primary care and more Provides in depth clinical reviews on AI in primary care offering actionable insights for clinical practice Presents the latest information on this timely focused topic under the leadership of experienced editors in the field Authors synthesize and distill the latest research and practice guidelines to create clinically significant topic based reviews Surveillance Education Nolan Higdon, Allison Butler, 2024-08-02 Surveillance Education explores the pervasive use of digital surveillance technologies in schools and assesses its pernicious effects on students Recognizing that the use of digital technologies will persist the authors instead offer practical ways to ameliorate their impact In our era of surveillance capitalism digital media technologies are ever more intertwined into the educational process Schools are presented with digital technologies as tools of convenience for gathering and grading student work as tools of support to foster a more equitable learning environment and as tools of safety for predicting or preventing violence or monitoring mental emotional and physical health Despite a dearth of evidence to confirm their effectiveness digital data collection and tracking is often presented as a way to improve educational outcomes and safety This book challenges these fallacious assumptions and argues that the use of digital media technologies has caused great harm to students by subjecting them to oppressive levels of surveillance impinging upon their right to privacy and harvesting their personal data on behalf of Big Tech In doing so the authors draw upon interviews from K 12 and higher education students teachers and staff civil rights and technology lawyers and educational technological programmers The authors also provide practical guidance for teachers administrators students and their families seeking to identify and combat surveillance in education This urgent eye opening book will be of interest to students and educators with interests in critical media literacy and pedagogy and the sociology of technology and education
