Введение. Авторское право является одним из основных элементов интеллектуальной собственности. Оно защищает творческие произведения, обеспечивая автору исключительные права на их использование. В данной работе рассматриваются основные принципы авторского права, его историческое развитие и современные тенденции. Также анализируются проблемы, связанные с нарушением авторских прав, и предлагаются меры по их предотвращению.

1. Понятие авторского права. Авторское право – это исключительное право, принадлежащее автору произведения, которое выражается в творческой деятельности. Оно возникает автоматически с момента создания произведения и не требует государственной регистрации. Авторское право защищает не только материальную, но и моральную сферу автора, обеспечивая ему возможность контролировать использование своего произведения.

2. Объекты авторского права. К объектам авторского права относятся произведения науки, литературы, искусства, а также программы для ЭВМ, базы данных и другие результаты творческой деятельности. Важно отметить, что авторское право защищает форму выражения, а не идеи, факты или информацию. Таким образом, авторское право не защищает идеи, но защищает конкретное выражение этих идей в произведении.

Contemporary Issues in Intellectual Property Law in Africa Olasupo Owoeye, 2024-10-16 This book discusses the impact of intellectual property and international investment agreements within Africa. It investigates how African nations can enhance their current intellectual property legislation across various regions of the continent while simultaneously fostering the development of local industries and stimulating innovation and creativity within the region. Despite intellectual property remaining a major issue in global trade governance, African countries have room to maximise the advantages that global intellectual property law can offer. Highlighting discourse on investment intellectual property and competition policies in Africa, the book underscores the need for African nations to develop intellectual property frameworks that can facilitate economic transformation. Using data from international intellectual property conventions, WTO dispute settlements, and African regional organisation conventions, the book is a comprehensive call to action for African intellectual property lawyers and policymakers. The book will be of interest to students and scholars in the field of intellectual property law and international investment law.

Role of AI in Producing, Evaluating, and Interpreting Literary Materials Asrifan, Andi, 2025-07-31 AI transforms literary studies by playing a role in the production, evaluation, and interpretation of literary materials. From generating creative content to analyzing complex texts for themes, patterns, and stylistic elements, AI tools augment the creative and critical processes driven by human intellect. In production, AI can collaborate with authors or independently generate literary works. In evaluation, it can assist in assessing readability, coherence, and originality. In interpretation, AI enables new insights through textual analysis and cultural comparisons. As these technologies evolve, they prompt questions about authorship, authenticity, and creativity, reshaping literature creation and comprehension. Role of AI in Producing, Evaluating, and Interpreting Literary Materials examines how AI is changing literature from authorship to reader interaction and critical analysis. It explores AI's rising role in producing, evaluating, and interpreting literary materials, including how it may help people write stories, poetry, and prose. This book covers topics such as philosophy, teacher education, and creative writing, and is a useful resource for computer engineers, writers, educators, academicians, researchers, and scientists.

PRATOMO,2025-08-26 Copyright and Artificial Intelligence Positioning AI as a Tool Not a Creator is a critical thinking book that comprehensively discusses the legal position of artificial intelligence AI in the realm of intellectual property particularly copyright Written by Muhammad Ari Pratomo an advocate and writer who understands both legal practice and the dynamics of digital technology this book explains logically scientifically and sharply that although AI is able to assist in the process of creating works it is not a legal subject to claim the status of creator This book consists of 15 chapters which systematically examine Basic understanding of copyright and characteristics of AI The position of AI in creative worlds such as art music and writing The clash between human creativity and machine algorithms National and international case studies on the rejection of the status of AI as creator Analysis from the perspective of positive law ethics and philosophy Policy recommendations and legal protection strategies for human creators The affirmation that protecting copyright means protecting human dignity With a multidisciplinary approach and based on the principle of fair law this book positions AI as a powerful tool but it still cannot replace humans as true creators This book is not only essential reading for legal and technology circles but also serves as an ethical and legal manifesto for defending the rights of human creators amidst the
