Managing Millennials Jacqueline Cripps, 2023-11-06 Leadership Engagement Retention Recruitment Diversity The key challenges facing workplaces today. Underpinning these challenges are the millennial workforce. A generation who are experiencing global challenges like the economic crisis, debt, job insecurity, and housing unaffordability. A generation who are experiencing personal challenges like social media addictions, pressure, and mental health crisis. A generation who has been put in the 'too hard' basket by a lot of workplaces. A generation who are soon to become the dominant global workforce. To future-proof workplace performance and engagement, workplaces must act. Getting the best out of the millennial workforce means creating an environment where they can thrive. Critical to this is good management and leadership. Without it, workplaces will not resolve the current challenges. This book provides a solution. It's designed to educate readers on the current and future millennial workforce: who they are, what they want, what they need, and how to get the best out of them. It offers clear-cut guidance and best practice techniques for both managers and millennials as they continue to navigate the current and future landscape of work. (Re)Framing Women in Post-Millennial Afghanistan, Pakistan, and Iran Rachel Gregory Fox, 2022-03-30 This book critically examines the representational politics of women in post-millennial Afghanistan, Pakistan, and Iran across a range of literary, visual, and digital media. Introducing the conceptual model of remediated witnessing, the book contemplates the ways in which meaning is constructed, deconstructed, and reconstructed as a consequence of its re-production and re-distribution. In what ways is information re-framed? The chapters in this book therefore analyse the reiterative processes via which Afghan, Pakistani, and Iranian women are represented in a range of contemporary media. By considering how Muslim women have been exploited as part of neo-imperial state and patriarchal discourses, the book charts possible and unexpected routes via which Muslim women might enact resistance. What is more, it asks the reader to consider how they themselves embody the role of witness to these resistant subjectivities and how they might do so responsibly with empathy and accountability. Millennial Ecuador Norman E Whitten, Norman Earl Whitten (Jr.), 2003-12

Millennial Ecuador is a superb collection of essays by leading anthropologists, historians, and indigenous intellectuals that provides a multifaceted critical view of the social and cultural practices of Andean, Amazonian, and Afro-Ecuadorian peoples engaged in mounting political struggles. Focusing on the clash between structural and contra-structural power on empowerment processes of traditionally disenfranchised populations and on multiple and competing representations of current confrontations, the book constitutes an outstanding analysis of the contradictions of modern and millennial globality of local cases.
