Handbook of Research on Remote Work and Worker Well-Being in the Post-COVID-19 Era Wheatley, Daniel, Hardill, Irene, Buglass, Sarah, 2021-04-16 With the introduction of policies to combat COVID 19 far greater numbers of employees across the globe including those with limited job autonomy have moved to undertake their entire job at home. Although challenging in the current climate embracing these flexible modes of work such as working at home including relevant investment in technology to enable this will not only deliver potential organizational benefits but also increase the adaptability of the labor market in the short and longer terms. Although perhaps not the central concern of many in the current climate good home based work is achievable and perhaps even a solution to the current work based dilemma created by COVID 19 and should be a common goal for individuals organizations and society. Research also has shifted to focus on the routines of workers organizational performance and well being of companies and their employees along with reflections on the ways in which these developments may influence and alter the nature of paid work into the post COVID 19 era. The Handbook of Research on Remote Work and Worker Well Being in the Post COVID 19 Era focuses on the rapid expansion of remote working in response to the global COVID 19 pandemic and the impacts it has had on both employees and businesses. The content of the book progresses understanding and raises awareness of the benefits and challenges faced by large scale movements to remote working considering the wide array of different ways in which the large scale movement to remote working is impacting working lives and the economy. This book covers how different fields of work are responding and implementing remote work along with providing a presentation of how work occurs in digital spaces and the impacts on different topics such as gender dynamics and virtual togetherness. It is an ideal reference book for HR professionals business managers executives entrepreneurs policymakers researchers students practitioners academicians and business professionals interested in the latest research on remote working and its impacts.

The Routledge Handbook of Global and Digital Governance Crossroads Preeti Shroff-Mehta, Jagdish.N Sheth, John Garrison, Shailendra Raj Mehta, 2024-08-26 This handbook maps and analyzes cross sector public corporate social community faith governance theories models and practices as they are evolving in a digital world. It studies human cultural societal institutional interactions and challenges in a digitally enabled world especially in the context of post crisis resilience and agility. Every global crisis forces societies and nations to realign while addressing deeper structural and cultural issues in governance. The Covid 19 pandemic has necessitated swift local to global governance responses for timely digital innovations for health crisis interventions economic recovery and societal equity. While every nation state is developing global pandemic responses in a digitally enabled world the deeper crisis of human institutional and societal governance deficit is also evident. This handbook documents digital governance innovations that enhance stakeholder engagement and inclusion for resilient accountable and effective governance across sectors. This volume reflects on a range of theoretical frameworks adapted for understanding global and digital governance It looks at international governance collaborations corporate governance reform education governance innovations public sector and urban governance health system governance sustainability and environmental governance community and faith based governance and digital cultural and creativity governance This book is unique as it presents important work on post Covid 19 digital and democratic governance and brings together holistic interdisciplinary and intersectoral perspectives from the Global North and Global South engaging the leading scholars practitioners businesses and civil society It will be of interest to multi sector institutions and global audiences governments corporates social sector institutions digital entrepreneurs students and researchers academic professionals policy makers public and private sector institutional leaders and organizational and entrepreneurial innovators interested in the field of governance Report of the Commission on Agricultural Workers United States.
