Haley, George T. Haley, 2013-03-27 How did China move so swiftly in capital intensive industries without labor cost or scale advantage from bit player to the largest manufacturer and exporter in the world This book argues that subsidies contributed significantly to China s success Industrial subsidies in key Chinese manufacturing industries may exceed thirty percent of industrial output Economic theories have mostly portrayed subsidies as distortive inefficiently reallocating resources according to non market criteria However China s state capitalist regime uses subsidies to promote the governments and the Communist Party of China's interests Rather than aberrations subsidies help Chinese businesses and governments produce stabilize and create common understandings of markets the flows of capital reflect struggles between critical Chinese actors including central and provincial governments Concepts of state capitalism including market transition theory the multi-organizational Chinese state and state as paramount shareholder create complex and relevant understandings of Chinese subsidies The authors develop independent measures of industrial subsidies using publicly reported data at firm and industry levels from governmental and private sources Subsidies include free to low cost loans subsidies to energy coal electricity natural gas heavy oil and to key inputs land and technology Four sequential studies identify the growth of subsidies to Chinese manufacturing over time and effects on world industry steel 2000 2007 glass 2004 2008 paper 2002 2009 and auto parts 2001 2011 Subsidies to Chinese industry affect and are affected by business strategy and trade policy Business strategies include lobbying for subsidies and for protection from subsidized foreign competitors and managing supply chains to guard against whiplash effects of uncoordinated subsidies The subsidized solar industry highlights how global business strategies and decisions on production location and technology development respond to production or consumption subsidies and include market competitive and non market political strategies The book also covers government policies and regulation on subsidies broadly focusing on domestic consumption antidumping and countervailing duties and domestic production indigenous innovation California Management Review ,2011 The New Advertising Valerie K. Jones,Ruth E. Brown Ph.D.,Ming Wang,2016-09-19 The era of big data has revolutionized many industries including advertising This is a valuable resource that supplies current authoritative and inspiring information about and examples of current and forward looking theories and practices in advertising The New Advertising Branding Content and Consumer Relationships in the Data Driven Social Media Era supplies a breadth of information on the theories and practices of new advertising from its origins nearly a quarter of a century ago through its evolution to current uses with an eye to the future Unlike most other books that focus on one niche topic this two volume set investigates the overall discipline of advertising in the modern context It sheds light on significant areas of change against the backdrop of digital data collection and use The key topics of branding content interaction engagement big data and measurement are addressed from multiple perspectives With contributions from experts in academia as well as the advertising and marketing industries this unique set is an indispensable resource that is focused specifically on new approaches to and forms of advertising Readers will gain an understanding of the distinct shifts that have taken place in advertising They will be able to build their knowledge on frameworks for navigating and capitalizing on today's fragmented consumer focused digital media landscape and they will be prepared for what the future of advertising will likely bring The Rise of the Curator Class Steffon Davis,2019-03-14 Pairing big ideas in marketing with the popular activity of content curation The Rise of the Curator Class positions curation as a humanization movement that is restructuring the internet Curation is set to overturn the 2 2 trillion global creative industry revolutionizing how we create market and discover content In the era of content overload and fake news in which everything to buy listen to read or watch is available online there is one group of people who have learned to thrive in this climate of superabundance the curator class whose influence and power grows as more people look to them as guides This new curator class is rewriting traditional curation tackling the overload and making sense of it for others In the past curation was available to an elite few Now internet platforms such as Pinterest Spotify and Twitter empower hundreds of millions of people to curate their ideas for anyone who may be interested revolutionizing how content is marketed and sold The Rise of the Curator Class explains how curation is disrupting internet commerce as consumer trust moves farther away from traditional brands and closer to the curators who lead tastes and it equips readers to think critically about how curation can work for them
