Matter: Challenges And Solutions Bin Srinidhi,2023-12-05 This book integrates the current research on diversity, equity and inclusion with corporate practice and describes how these initiatives affect organizations' morale, performance and output. Academic researchers, corporate executives tasked with implementing Diversity, Equity, Inclusion (DEI) and regulators face the problem of balancing DEI initiatives, which could generate diverse ideas beneficial to the organization with concerns about diluting meritocracy. Building a diverse workforce could improve both organizational well-being and social harmony. Research has shown that building a diverse workforce often results in communication and coordination issues and unjustified pay and performance gaps, engendering feelings of exclusion among diverse individuals. The book describes how organizations

address these issues in various settings ranging from accounting firms to health care providers It covers settings with gender and racial diversities and clarifies the difference between equality and equity Its coverage includes dealing with concealable disabilities and promoting equity across diverse populations in organizational and social settings Social Structure Adaptation to COVID-19 Suresh Nanwani, William Loxley, 2024-03-19 Social Structure Adaptation to COVID 19 offers global interdisciplinary perspectives that examine how the COVID 19 pandemic has altered the development trajectory of schools public health the workforce and technology adoption It explores social themes in society economy policy and culture and draws on a social framework to describe key functions of societal adaptation to the pandemic Edited by Suresh Nanwani and William Loxley the volume is grounded in the study of system components and their objectives to improve overall well being given the ill effects of the COVID 19 pandemic Chapters explore interconnected social networks and how sectors restructured themselves to stabilize or transform society International contributors from 20 countries offer case studies that highlight key themes including personal connectivity societal equality well being big data and national resilience They predict how impactful the pandemic might be in reshaping the future and assess how the COVID 19 pandemic has affected school system shutdown public health collapse business closures public policy failure and technology driven social media acceleration Offering insights into how institutions and sectors work together in times of crisis and how COVID 19 has restructured social behavior Social Structure Adaptation to COVID 19 will be valuable reading for scholars and students of sociology political science anthropology comparative international development psychology and education It will also be of interest to policymakers concerned with education work and organizations and media and technology The Open Access version of this book available at www.taylorfrancis.com has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4 0 international license Increasing Productivity and Efficiency in Online Teaching Dickenson, Patricia, 2016-05-19 Distance learning has become very popular in recent years making evident some of the problems inherent to online classes as they are today High attrition rates driven in part by student isolation and low satisfaction have plagued online courses For an online class to succeed it must be built upon engaging media and meaningful interaction Increasing Productivity and Efficiency in Online Teaching provides a reference for educators in virtual classrooms and enumerates strategies to foster instructor engagement and support Because co construction of information opposed to rote memorization of disseminated facts engages students and develops critical thinking skills online education must shift to reflect this Drawing from learning theory this publication focuses on the ways educators can shape their online classes to best suit their students and leave them with knowledge and course satisfaction This book is recommended for researchers developers students of education administrators and online educators in all subject areas Chasing Permanence Steven N.
