Teach Janice Koch, 2018-12-04 Teach is a concise introduction to education that challenges readers' preconceived notions of teaching in order to transform them into reflective practitioners Empathizing with the difficulties students face as they move from the college classroom to their own classrooms revered author Janice Koch invites readers to both reflect on their own dispositions for teaching and look outside of themselves to the demands of the profession making the philosophy of teaching and learning accessible and relevant The Fourth Edition emphasizes the changing student population and the role of technology and globalization in the field while also including the Interstate Teacher Assessment and Support Consortium InTASC standards correlating with each chapter's content With the guidance of this supportive text readers will gain vital exposure by engaging with professional standards from the very start of their career

Environmental Leadership Deborah Rigling Gallagher, 2012-09-06 Part of the SAGE Reference Series on Leadership this 2 volume set tackles issues relevant to leadership in the realm of the environment and sustainability Volume 1 of Environmental Leadership A Reference Handbook considers such topics as environmental thought leadership environmental ethics conservation eco feminism collective action and the commons and what we have termed contrarians political leadership the environmental challenge context for the expression of political leadership governmental leadership government initiatives to provide leadership in environmental management private sector leadership private sector leadership in environmental management as individuals through organizations or through specific initiatives nonprofit leadership nonprofit sector leadership in topical areas such as conservation advocacy philanthropy and economic development signaling events events and their impact on the exercise of environmental leadership through individual political and organizational actions grassroots activism profiles of individual environmental activists and considerations of how environmental leadership is exercised through activism environmental leadership in journalism literature and the arts and environmental leadership in education In Volume 2 we cover topics that confront the particular intractable characteristics of environmental problem solving Individual chapters focus on how environmental leadership actions or initiatives may be applied to address specific problems in context offering both analyses and recommendations Overarching themes in this volume include taking action in the face of uncertainty mitigating climate change impacts adapting to climate change protecting coastal ecosystems protecting wetlands and estuaries preserving forest resources protecting critical aquifers preventing the spread of invasive species and identifying and conserving vital global habitats promoting international cooperation in the face of conflicting agendas designing and implementing climate change policy reconciling species protection and free trade allocating scarce resources designing sustainable fisheries addressing global overpopulation preventing trade in endangered species conserving global biodiversity and mitigating ocean debris and pollution addressing conflicts between economic progress and environmental protection preserving open space redesigning cities promoting ecotourism redeveloping brownfields designing transit oriented development confronting impacts of factory farming preventing non point source agricultural pollution confronting agricultural water use addressing the impacts of agrochemicals designing sustainable food systems and valuing ecosystem services addressing complex management challenges energy efficiency solar energy wind energy hydrogen economy alternative vehicles solid waste disposal hazardous waste disposal electronic waste disposal life cycle analysis and waste to energy and addressing disproportionate impacts on the poor and the weak preventing export of developed world waste to developing countries minimizing co location of poverty and polluting industries protecting the rights of indigenous peoples preventing environmental disease protecting children s health providing universal access to potable water and protecting environmental refugees The final three chapters examine next generation environmental leaders Current Topics in Technology Maureen Sheehan Paparella,Eugene Simko,2008 This collection of thirty articles addressing the latest trends in technology encourages classroom discussion and raises student s awareness of the important role that technology plays in both personal and professional areas Business Review Weekly ,2006 Sourcing start-up success Adrian Roessler,2011-08-31 Master s Thesis from the year 2011 in the subject Business economics Company formation Business Plans grade A Vienna University of Economics and Business language English abstract The purpose of this paper is three fold First it is intended to establish a new framework by combining literature streams on start up success with research on cultural and institutional environments Although a wide array of literature on start ups cultural and institutional literature exists connecting research is underdeveloped This paper hence sets out to bridge these differing streams of literature 1 In fact one has to bear in mind that although always termed a worldwide crisis many developing countries and BRIC states have not been affected Second drawing upon the impact of globalization and the Internet new implications for the sourcing of business ideas will be generated A lot of attention has been paid to the development of start ups and the characteristics of entrepreneurs However the step in the development chain where the idea is generated has received comparably low attention This paper thus tries to explore some sources and mechanisms evolved through globalization and use of the Internet Third a case study designed to explore the above mentioned new framework and implications is expected to support the development of a new model It is therefore the overall purpose of this paper to produce a theoretically grounded and practically applicable model A model that should cover the most important aspects when copying and implementing a business concept from a different country
