Customizing The Body The Art Culture:

Customizing the Body Clinton Sanders, 1989 Tattoos continue to be a mark of alienation from the mainstream but they also have an affiliative effect identifying one as a member of a select group This book discusses tattooing as a highly social act as a manipulation of self image as a symbolically meaningful form of body alteration in contemporary society Body Marks Kathlyn Gay, Christine Whittington, 2002-01-01 Discusses the history of various forms of body marking current popularity of body piercing and tattoos how and why these are done and some things to think about before choosing to be pierced or tattooed And Death Shall Have Dominion: Interdisciplinary Perspectives on Dying, Caregivers, Death, Mourning and the Bereaved Katarzyna Małeczka, Rossanna Gibbs, 2019-07-22 This volume was first published by Interdisciplinary Press in 2015 This collection of essays presents a variety of perspectives on death and dying by scholars from different countries The areas covered in the volume include Conceptual Cultural and Gender Approaches to Death and the Deceased Children and Death Legal Aspects of Euthanasia and Discussion on Choices at End of Life Palliative Care and Responsibilities and Challenges of Medical and Family Caregivers the Aesthetic Experience of Life's End and Modern Ways of Grieving and Commemorating the Dead Tattooed Bodies James Martell, Erik Larsen, 2022-01-20 The essays collected in Tattooed Bodies draw on a range of theoretical paradigms and empirical knowledge to investigate tattoos tattooing and our complex relations with marks on skin Engaging with diverse disciplinary perspectives in art history continental philosophy media studies psychoanalysis critical theory literary studies biopolitics and cultural anthropology the volume reflects the sheer diversity of meanings attributed to tattoos throughout history and across cultures Essays explore conceptualizations of tattoos and tattooing in Derrida Deleuze and Guattari Lacan Agamben and Jean Luc Nancy while utilizing theoretical perspectives to interpret tattoos in literary works by Melville Beckett Kafka Genet and Jeff VanderMeer among others Tattooed Bodies prompts readers to explore a few significant questions Are tattoos unique phenomena or an art medium in need of special theoretical exploration If so what conceptual paradigms and theories might best shape our understanding of tattoos and their complex ubiquity in world cultures and histories Blood and Lightning Dustin Kiskaddon, 2024-02-27 Any tattoo is the outcome of an intimate often hidden process The people bodies and money that make tattooing what it is blend together and form a heady cocktail something described by Matt the owner of Oakland's Premium Tattoo as blood and lightning Faced with the client's anticipation of pain and excitement the tattooer must carefully perform calm authority to obscure a world of preparation and vigilance Blood and lightning my dude the mysterious and intoxicating effect of tattooing done right Dustin Kiskaddon draws on his own apprenticeship with Matt and takes us behind the scenes into the complex world of professional tattooers We join people who must routinely manage a messy and carnal type of work Blood and Lightning brings us through the tattoo shop where the smell of sterilizing agents the hum of machines and the sound of music spill out onto the back patio It is here that Matt along with his comrades reviews the day's wins bemoans its losses and prepares for the future Having tattooed more than five hundred people Kiskaddon is able to freshly articulate the physical mental emotional and moral life of tattooers His captivating account explores the challenges they face on the job including the crushing fear of making mistakes on someone else s body the role of masculinity in evolving tattoo worlds appropriate and inappropriate intimacy and the task of navigating conversations about color and race Ultimately the stories in this book teach us about the roles our bodies play in the social world Both mediums and objects of art our bodies are purveyors of sociocultural significance sites of capitalist negotiation and vivid encapsulations of the human condition Kiskaddon guides us through a strangely familiar world inviting each of us to become a tattooer along the way David Bowie in Darkness

Nicholas P. Greco,2015-07-04 As an artist David Bowie was widely considered a chameleon shedding one persona to create another and thus staying popular relevant and compelling In reality Bowie was able to work with the resources around him to create something new causing many to see him as a sort of lone artist rather than a collaborator in the creation of his own celebrity Mid career Bowie began presenting himself as a figure in darkness progressively more hidden He required an audience for his continued celebrity but worked against that audience in the creation or rather the destruction of his star image This tension is made clear in his 1995 album 1 Outside which has him performing for an audience while simultaneously shunning them This book explores Bowie s negotiation of his celebrity during his later career with particular focus on 1 Outside an album symptomatic of deep seated societal and personal anxiety Narrative and Identity Jens Brockmeier,Donal A. Carbaugh,2001-01-01 Annotation This text evolved out of a December 1995 conference at the International Research Center for Cultural Studies IFK in Vienna attended by scholars from psychology psychiatry philosophy social sciences literary theory classics communication and film theory and exploring the importance of narrative as an expression of our experience as a form of communication and as a form for understanding the world and ourselves Nine scholars from Canada the US and Europe contribute 12 essays on the relationship between narrative and human identity how we construct what we call our lives and create ourselves in the process Coverage includes theoretical perspectives on the problem of narrative and self construction specific life stories in their cultural contexts and empirical and theoretical issues of autobiographical memory and narrative identity Annotation c Book News Inc Portland OR booknews com Body and Culture Greg Lyons,2006 Part of the Longman Topics reader series Body and Culture is not simply about the impact of our society on our physical appearance Rather it almost ignores the physicality of the body and instead treats it as a medium through which a person can express his or her culture This collection of readings explores the ideas and ethics behind the choices made in reacting to and expressing culture It is also important to understand the consequences of culture s toll on the body The text includes six chapters which break up the essays according to the aspect of culture affecting the body These influences include a wide range such as psychology media and dance Each chapter includes a section entitled Topics for Exploration and Writing that is designed to aid in introducing students to approaching and considering an essay topic

Longman Topics are brief attractive readers on a single complex but compelling topic Featuring about 30 full length selections these volumes are generally half the size and half the cost of standard composition readers

Mutilating the Body Kim Hewitt, 1997 Mutilating the Body Identity in Blood and Ink is an analysis of the different ways in which people use their bodies for self expression that considers the significance of body modification and how different forms of body art and alteration serve individual and cultural needs The book also addresses eating disorders self cutting and ritualized consensual sadomasochism

Women in the Arts Diane Touliatos-Miles, Barbara Harbach, 2020-06-01 Women in the Arts Eccentric Essays in Music Visual Arts and Literature is a multi disciplined celebration of past and present women creators It marks a new departure in women s studies for it presents an interdisciplinary emphasis on the long neglected area of women s contributions to the various genres of the arts Because of its unique historical approach this pioneering collection of essays is useful in the areas of humanities and women s studies as scholarly or pleasure readings Many firsts are included in this anthology There are chapters by three prominent award winning living composers that discuss the plight of women in this male dominated field and the pioneering contemporary innovations to the discipline of musical composition that women have contributed Another chapter brings to light pioneering research on the names and musical compositions of the earliest women composers Another gives historical evidence of the earliest documented women s conservatory and its performers in the United States located in the Moravian Young Ladies Seminary in Antebellum Bethlehem Pennsylvania The chapter on the MacDowell Colony reveals the history of how Marian MacDowell and her network of women s music clubs helped to build the MacDowell Colony a haven for artists that has continued through the twenty first century In the visual arts one essay brings forth visual representations of women s subjugation another analyzes the photographic innovations and historical work of the woman pioneer Nellie Ladd the artistic contributions of two women of color Josephine Baker and Frida Kahlo are contrasted in a historical perspective and a fascinating historical analyses of women and tattoos is presented In the area of literature the Potters are celebrated for pioneering the first serial hand made magazine in 1904 another writer discusses how she represents the role of motherhood in her female characters and arguments are presented of how women poets give voice to spiritual feminism The thirteen diverse essays present original contributions to the disciplines of music visual arts and literature By bringing forth this collection it is hoped that there will be greater appreciation for the great diversity and range of women creators and the obstacles that they had to overcome It is hoped that the essays will provide a historical documentation of the artistic voice of women that have until now been neglected

Makeup, Identity Performance & Discrimination, 2007 This symposium analyzes two seemingly conflicting value systems in recent employment discrimination cases one that prohibits stereotyping in the workplace and another that upholds workplace appearance standards
