Cuthbert Heath The Maker Of Modern Lloyds:

Cuthbert Heath Antony Brown, 1980-01-01 Lloyd's: Law and Practice Julian Burling, 2013-09-05 The unique features of the Lloyd's Corporation and Market and their governing rules are complex and are often difficult to navigate even for the most seasoned practitioner This book provides the reader with a definitive and detailed guide and is essential for any practitioner dealing with Lloyd's Insurance After a brief historical account the book provides a thorough legal description and analysis of Lloyd's which includes topics ranging from the constitution and membership requirements of Lloyd's UK and overseas regulation the processes for placing and underwriting business and handling claims chain of security enforcement and disciplinary matters compensation and the reconstruction and the renewal of the Lloyd's market between 1990 and 1996 The book will be an invaluable reference tool for insurance practitioners and professionals dealing with Lloyd's Julian Burling is a barrister at Serle Court and has been involved in advising on and implementing nearly all significant legal developments at Lloyd's in the last 25 years Institutions and the Evolution of Modern Business Mark Casson, Mary B. Rose, 2014-01-14 The papers in this volume demonstrate that it can be fruitful to apply institutional theory to business history In addition the volume shows that the wider study of the institutional environment is inseparable from the study of business It is clear however that although institutionalism in business history has a long pedigree many areas of research and potential interaction with theory remain to be explored The extent to which this will occur inevitably depends upon the degree to which the interests of theoreticians serve the needs of historians and vice versa Entrepreneurship, Networks, and Modern Business Jonathan Brown, Mary B. Rose, 1993 A collection of papers based upon a joint symposium of business historians from the universities of Lancaster and Reading Each paper addresses some aspect of entrepreneurship and topics under that heading range from business culture and family firms to cartels and the British arms industry Delusions of Competence Robin Pearson, 2022-02-09 This book examines the crisis at the famous insurance market Lloyd's of London during the late twentieth century which nearly destroyed the 300 year old institution While rapid structural change resulting from system collapse is less common in insurance than in the history of other financial services one exception was the Lloyd's crisis Hitherto explanations of the crisis have focused on the effects of catastrophic losses and poor governance By drawing on contemporary accounts of the crisis the author constructs the first comprehensive scholarly analysis of the public and political response The book applies theoretical concepts from behavioural economics and economic psychology to argue that multiple delusions of competence were at work both within and outside the Lloyd's market Arrogance elitism and defence of vested interests comprised endogenous elements of the crisis Entrenched ideas about the virtues of self regulation and faith in insider experts also played a role The result was a misdiagnosis by both insiders and politicians of what ailed Lloyd's and a series of reforms that failed to address the underlying causes of its disease This book offers a salutary lesson from recent history about the importance of the transparency accountability and effective monitoring of financial institutions It is of interest to academics and students of economic and financial history business insurance political economy and history
