Workshop on Home Economics Management--Family Planning Component ,1980 Solid Waste Management
Elizabeth M. Thomas-Hope,1998 Solid waste has become a major consequence of development and modernization yet some of the greatest challenges to its management are felt most keenly in the developing countries This is part of the larger paradox of development namely that factors that create the most intransigent problems currently facing the developing countries are invariably those which derive from development itself Introduction This volume presents a collection of papers which with perspectives from Africa and the Caribbean raise critical issues in the management of solid waste It is intended to offer a basis for discussion among the wide range of disciplines and sectors involved in solid waste management and suggest directions for future work both in the theoretical and practical dimensions of the challenge with which developing countries are confronted CSEC Past Papers Caribbean Examinations Council,2011 CXC News ,1987 The Caribbean Home Economists ,1983 CXC 10th Anniversary Caribbean Examinations Council,1982 Current Awareness Service ,1991 Educational Planning and Management in Small States Commonwealth Secretariat,2002 This collection of papers presents the critical reflections on the management and planning of education of 18 senior officials working in 12 small island nations The papers are a result of their participation in the Postgraduate Diploma in Educational Planning and Management in Small States program at the University of Malta The book is divided into two sections After an introductory essay and two papers on generic management and administration issues in small states the papers in the first section deal with educational management addressing the education process from its internal organizational or operational perspective This section addresses such topics as resource allocation Total Quality Management staff recruitment job satisfaction and the role of principals The second section of the book discusses educational planning focusing on education as a tool for national development This section discusses such topics as school business linkages the general role of educational planning and specific developmental challenges facing primary secondary vocational and adult education in small countries Each chapter begins with a brief summary of the key arguments of the paper and ends with a discussion point based on the contents Contains a subject and author index WFA Jamaican National Bibliography ,1984 People, Places and Themes Mike Ridout,Wendy Keeling,2002 This textbook follows the structure of the Bristol Project OCR Syllabus C It can be used as a stand alone resource or alongside the core book as the pagination is identical The text has been simplified to make it suitable for low ability students and covers skills techniques and coursework Select Bibliography of Education in the Commonwealth Caribbean, 1976-1985 Amy Robertson,1987 Report on the Education Division Antigua and Barbuda.
