Cy Twombly Daros Collection:

Audible silence: Cy Twombly at Daros Heiner Bastian, Eva Keller, Cy Twombly, Daros Collection Zürich, 2002

Abstraction, Gesture, Ecriture Yve-Alain Bois, 1999 American Abstract Expressionism is not only one of the most fascinating but also one of the most influential periods in contemporary art after the 1940s. Abstraction, Gesture, Ecriture illustrates in the essays of well known art critics as well as in the paintings selected from the Daros Collection the different abstractions and gestures in contemporary American art. It focuses on American artists who conceived of a way of painting which began with the scrawl like gestures of Jackson Pollock, Willem de Kooning and Joan Mitchell. Then the scriptural gesture developed out of handwriting is examined in an extraordinary group of work that spans Cy Twombly's whole career. Brice Marden's alternately fluid and tensile linear abstractions and Robert Rymans intensive occupation with the stroke of a brush are discussed as well as Andy Warhol's answers to Abstract Expressionism in his Oxidation and Shadow Paintings in 1978. This particular movement in Abstract Expressionism has provoked an on going dialogue in painting. Abstraction, Gesture, Ecriture covers this original gesture from the Action Painters and its resonance through the next generation of painters. Each painting discussed comes from the Daros Collection, a Swiss private collection which is one of the internationally most important private collections of contemporary art focusing on American art of the last 50 years. The carefully selected authors all well respected in the art and academic world complete this extraordinary and beautifully designed volume. The perfect gift book.

In the Power of Painting, 2000 Warhol, Andy, Polke, Sigmar, Richter, Gerhard, Twombly, Cy, Marden, Brice, Bleckner, Ross.

Merleau-Ponty at the Gallery Véronique M. Fóti, 2020-03-01 Merleau Ponty's phenomenological ontology engages deeply with visual art and this aspect of his work remains significant not only to philosophers but also to artists, art theorists and critics. Until recently scholarly attention has been focused on the artists he himself was inspired by and wrote about chiefly C. zanne, Klee, Matisse and Rodin. Merleau Ponty at the Gallery expands and shifts the focus to address a range of artists: Giorgio Morandi, Kiki Smith, Cy Twombly, Joan Mitchell and Ellsworth Kelly whose work came to prominence in the second half of the twentieth century and thus primarily after the philosopher's death. Véronique M. Fóti does not confine her analyses to Merleau Ponty's texts which now importantly include his late lecture courses but also engages directly with the art. Of particular concern to her is the art's ethical bearing especially as related to animal and vegetal life. The book's concluding chapter addresses the still widespread rejection of beauty as an aesthetic value.

Face to Face Daros Collection (Art), 2008. Since its emergence in the 1980s and 90s the Daros Collection in Zurich has accumulated about 280 works by 30 outstanding North American and European artists. It possesses one of the finest collections of early Warhol and major works by Sigmar Polke, Barbara Kruger, Alfredo Jaar and Louise Bourgeois among many others. In 2000 when the strength and integrity of this collection had been established the museum boldly struck off in a new direction and the Daros Latin America Collection was founded. Already comprising roughly 1 000 works by around 100 artists including Carlos

Amorales Jos Bedia Alfredo Jaar Gego Guillermo Kuitca Vik Muniz among others it is now the largest collection of Latin American art in Europe an exciting new resource that will doubtless have interesting long term ramifications for contemporary European art Face to Face is the first volume to bring the two Daros Collections together thereby engaging these works created in different media and of various cultural origin in a dynamic dialogue that disrupts ordinary canon oriented perspectives Face to Face thus not only deepens our knowledge of the respective qualities of the two collections but also explores the common characteristics of their cultural backgrounds

Cy Twombly Eva Keller,Regula Malin,Heiner Bastian,2002-01-01 One of the most important painters of today Cy Twombly's epic yet intimate combinations of gestural abstraction drawing and writing have been moving viewers since the mid 1950s This book presents a diverse array of short essays by leading art critics as they explore the many aspects of Twombly's work Heiner Bastian considers the relation of Mallarmé's poetry to Twombly's visual language John Berger meditates on language and words as they appear on the artist's canvases Yve Alain Bois muses on the scatological impulse Philip Fisher dissects Twombly's zany neo classicist storytelling Robert Pincus Witten tells us a few things about Twombly's relationship to Italy and the United States And Harald Szeemann wonders about Twombly's very own brand of history painting A rich and stimulating collection of writings complemented by lavish plates showing many early works Cy Twombly produced in collaboration with the Daros Collection is indispensable for anyone interested in deepening their understanding of the artist's work

Meanings of Abstract Art Paul Crowther,Isabel Wünsche,2012 This book explores the relation of abstract art to nature Traditional picturing and sculpture are based on conventions of resemblance between the work and that which it is a representation of Abstract works in contrast adopt alternative modes of visual representation or break down and reconfigure the mimetic conventions of pictorial art and sculpture Obviously this means that abstract art takes many different forms However this diversity should not mask some key structural features these center on two basic relations to nature understanding nature in the broadest sense to comprise the world of recognisable objects creatures organisms processes and states of affairs The first involves abstracting from nature to give selected aspects of it a new and extremely unfamiliar appearance The second involves abstract art as the affirmation of a relatively unconstrained natural creativity that issues in new autonomous forms that are not constrained by mimetic conventions Such creativity is often attributed to the power of the unconscious The book contains three categories of essays
