Transmedia Creatures Francesca Saggini, Anna Enrichetta Soccio, 2018-10-19 On the 200th anniversary of the first edition of Mary Shelley's Frankenstein Transmedia Creatures presents studies of Frankenstein by international scholars from converging disciplines such as humanities musicology film studies television studies English and digital humanities These innovative contributions investigate the afterlives of a novel taught in a disparate array of courses Frankenstein disturbs and transcends boundaries be they political ethical theological aesthetic and not least of media ensuring its vibrant presence in contemporary popular culture Transmedia Creatures highlights how cultural content is redistributed through multiple media forms and modes of production including user generated ones from below that often appear synchronously and dismantle and renew established readings of the text while at the same time incorporating and revitalizing aspects that have always been central to it The authors engage with concepts value systems and aesthetic moral categories among them the family horror monstrosity diversity education risk technology the body from a variety of contemporary approaches and highly original perspectives which yields new connections Ultimately Frankenstein as evidenced by this collection is paradoxically enriched by the heteroglossia of preconceptions misreadings and overreadings that attend it and that reveal the complex interweaving of perceptions and responses it generates Published by Bucknell University Press Distributed worldwide by Rutgers University Press

Science Fiction and Postmodern Fiction Barbara Puschmann-Nalenz, 1992. In the years after 1950 a new generation of authors began to expand the thematic scope of Science Fiction while also extending its narrative conventions by introducing ideas from modern psychology and surrealism. Science Fiction shares the new themes: the quest of identity, the relativity of time and consciousness, the overlapping of illusion and reality with works of modern and especially postmodern fiction. On the other hand the innovative postmodern fiction of Pynchon, Borges, Vonnegut and William Burroughs incorporates Science Fiction motifs thereby blending the two genres. This book in a series of juxtapositions and contrastive literary analyses clarifies and questions existing genre borderlines and breaks new ground in the literary theory of postmodern fiction and of Science Fiction.
