Cyberspace Cyberbodies Cyberpunk Vol 43 Cultures Of Technological Embodiment:
The Routledge Research Companion to Geographies of Sex and Sexualities Gavin Brown,Kath Browne,2016-05-20 Comprehensive and authoritative this state of the art review both charts and develops the rich sub discipline geographies of sexualities exploring sex gender sexuality and sexual practices Emerging from the desire to examine differences and exclusions as a key aspect of human geographies these geographies have engaged with heterosexual and queer lesbian gay bi and trans lives Developing thinking in this area geographers and other social scientists have illustrated the centrality of place space and other spatial relationships in reconstituting sexual practices representations desires as well as sexed bodies and lives This book reviews the current state of the field and offers new insights from authors located on five continents In doing so the book seeks to draw on and influence core debates in this field as well as disrupt the Anglo American hegemony in studies of sexualities sexes and geographies This volume is the definitive collection in the area bringing together many international leaders in the field alongside scholars that are well established outside the Anglophone academy and many emerging talents who will lead the field in the decades to come Identity, Institutions and Governance in an AI World Peter Bloom,2020-01-10 The 21st century is on the verge of a possible total economic and political revolution Technological advances in robotics computing and digital communications have the potential to completely transform how people live and work Even more radically humans will soon be interacting with artificial intelligence A I as a normal and essential part of their daily existence What is needed now more than ever is to rethink social relations to meet the challenges of this soon to arrive smart world This book proposes an original theory of trans human relations for this coming future Drawing on insights from organisational studies critical theory psychology and futurism it will chart for readers the coming changes to identity institutions and governance in a world populated by intelligent human and non human actors alike It will be characterised by a fresh emphasis on infusing programming with values of social justice protecting the rights and views of all forms of consciousness and creating the structures and practices necessary for encouraging a culture of mutual intelligent design To do so means moving beyond our anthropocentric worldview of today and expanding our assumptions about the state of tomorrow s politics institutions laws and even everyday existence Critically such a profound shift demands transcending humanist paradigms of a world created for and by humans and instead opening ourselves to a new reality where non human intelligence and cyborgs are increasingly central Gender, Citizenship, and Identity in the Indian Blogosphere Sumana Kasturi,2019-08-28 This book examines the role of women bloggers in the Indian Blogosphere It explores how women use new media technologies to create online spaces that share knowledge raise awareness and build communities A unique work at the intersection of digital culture feminist theory and diaspora transnationalism studies this book brings to light layered and complex issues such as identity gender performativity presentation of self migration and citizenship This volume will be useful for scholars and researchers of cultural studies political studies gender studies women s studies sociology diaspora studies feminist theory media and communication studies   Routledge Library Editions: British Sociological Association Various,2021-07-14 The volumes in this set originally published between 1969 and 2001 is comprised of original books published in conjunction with the British Sociological Association The set draws together original research by leading academics based on study groups and conference papers in the areas of youth race the sociology of work gender social research urban studies class deviance and social control law development and health Each volume provides a rigorous examination of related key issues This set will be of particular interest to students and academics in the field of sociology health and social care gender studies and criminology respectively   Academy & the Internet Helen Fay Nissenbaum,Monroe E. Price,2004 This book explores the impact of the Internet on scholarly research across and beyond the social sciences The contributors leading figures in a broad spectrum of disciplines explain how their fields of inquiry are being redefined and what issues of social change are salient as new information technologies increasingly become the subject of scholarly analysis They have rendered a conceptual photograph of how their disciplines are coping with the impact of information technology by covering policy approaches empirical research and theoretical questions Academy the Internet highlights significant zones of inquiry and provides a critical perspective on the direction each discipline is traveling Identity and Social Change Joseph E. Davis,2011-12-31 Identity and Social Change examines the thorny problem of modern identity Trenchant critiques have come from identity politics focusing on the construction of difference and the solidarity of minorities and from academic deconstructions of modern subjectivity This volume places identity in a broader sociological context of destabilizing and reintegrating forces The contributors first explore identity in light of economic changes consumerism and globalization then focus on the question of identity dissolution Zygmunt Bauman examines the effects of consumerism and considers the constraints these place on the disadvantaged Drawing together discourses of the body and globalization David Harvey considers the growth of the wage labor system worldwide and its consequences for worker consciousness Mike Featherstone outlines a rethinking of citizenship and identity formation in light of the realities of globalization and new information technologies Part two opens with Robert Dunn s examination of cultural commodification and the attenuation of social relations He argues that the media and marketplace are part of a general destabilization of identity formation Kenneth Gergen maintains that proliferating communications technologies undermine the traditional conceptions of self and community and suggest the need for a new base for building the moral society In the final chapter Harvie Ferguson argues that despite the contemporary infatuation with irony the decline of the notion of the self as an inner depth effectively severs the long connection between irony and identity   Imagining Cities Sallie Westwood,1997 Twenty nine collected essays represent a critical history of Shakespeare s play as text and as theater beginning with Samuel Johnson in 1765 and ending with a review of the Royal Shakespeare Company production in 1991 The criticism centers on three aspects of the play the love friendship debate   The Body of Nature and Culture Rod Giblett,2008-10-14 This book explores the relationship of human bodies with natural and cultural environments arguing that these categories are linked and intertwined It argues for an environmentally sustainable and healthy relationship between the body and the earth

Sublime Communication Technologies Rod Giblett,2008-01-17 This lively new study is a critical cultural history of communication technologies from railways and telegraphy to computers and the Internet in which Rod Giblett argues that these technologies play a pivotal role in the cultural history of modernity and its project of the sublime Modern Japanese Culture and Society Dolores P. Martinez,2007 Brings together new wave essays written from the 1990s onwards together with the several articles written in earlier decades in order to build up a nuanced portrait of modern Japanese culture and society This work looks at the macro level of politics and the economy It also addresses religion and the diversity of contemporary Japanese society Orlan Kate Ince,2000-11 Orlan is a French multimedia and performance artist whose performances have consisted of cosmetic surgery remaining conscious during cosmetic surgery photographing filming and broadcasting P 1 Sociological Abstracts Leo P. Chall,1997 CSA Sociological Abstracts abstracts and indexes the international literature in sociology and related disciplines in the social and behavioral sciences The database provides abstracts of journal articles and citations to book reviews drawn from over 1 800 serials publications and also provides abstracts of books book chapters dissertations and conference papers Arts & Humanities Citation Index ,1998
