The Monuments Peter Cossins, 2014-03-13 Peter Cossins is an engaging writer whose conversational style makes this an effortless yet interesting read The cosy tone delivers a great deal with a good balance of history and anecdotes If you wish to explore cycling beyond the Grand Tours this is the book Carlton Kirby An awe inspiring history of the five most legendary classic races in world cycling The Tour de France may provide the most obvious fame and glory but it is cycling's one day tests that the professional riders really prize Toughest longest and dirtiest of all are the so called Monuments the five legendary races that are the sport's equivalent of golf's majors or the grand slams in tennis Milan Sanremo the Tour of Flanders Paris Roubaix Liège Bastogne Liège and the Tour of Lombardy date back more than a century and each of them is an anomaly in modern day sport the cycling equivalent of the Monaco Grand Prix Time has changed them to a degree but they remain as brutally testing as they ever have been They provide the sport's outstanding one day performers the likes of Philippe Gilbert Fabian Cancellara Mark Cavendish Tom Boonen Peter Sagan and Thor Hushovd with a chance to measure themselves against each other and their predecessors in the most challenging tests in world cycling From the bone shattering bowler hat cobbles of the Paris Roubaix rumoured to be Bradley Wiggins next challenge to the insanely steep hellingen in the Tour of Flanders each race is as unique as the riders who push themselves through extreme exhaustion to win them and enter their epic history Over the course of a century only Rik Van Looy Eddy Merckx and Roger De Vlaeminck have won all five races Yet victory in a single edition of a Monument guarantees a rider lasting fame For some that one victory has even more cachet than success in a grand tour Each of the Monuments has a fascinating history
