Spretnak,2014-10-22 This book demonstrates that numerous prominent artists in every period of the modern era were expressing spiritual interests when they created celebrated works of art This magisterial overview insightfully reveals the centrality of an often denied and misunderstood element in the cultural history of modern art Encyclopedia of Interior Design Joanna Banham,1997-05-01 From ancient Greece to Frank Lloyd Wright studiola to smoking rooms chimney boards to cocktail cabinets and papier m ch to tubular steel the Encyclopedia ofInterior Design provides a history of interior decoration and design from ancient times to the present day It includes more than 500 illustrated entries covering a variety of subjects ranging from the work of the foremost designers to the origins and function of principal rooms and furnishing types as well as surveys of interior design by period and nationality all prepared by an international team of experts in the field Entries on individuals include a biography a chronological list of principal works or career summary a primary and secondary bibliography and a signed critical essay of 800 to 1500 words on the individual s work in interior design The style and topic entries contain an identifying headnote a guide to main collections a list of secondary sources and a signed critical essay The Czech Reader Jan Bažant,Nina Bažantová,Frances Starn,2010-12-13 Frances Starn is a writer living in Berkeley California Book Jacket Art and Identity at the Water's Edge Tricia Cusack,2017-07-05 The water s edge whether shore or riverbank is a marginal territory that becomes invested with layers of meaning The essays in this collection present intriguing perspectives on how the water s edge has been imagined and represented in different places at various times and how this process contributed to the formation of social identities Art and Identity at the Water's Edge focuses upon national coastlines and maritime heritage on rivers and seashore as regions of liminality and sites of conflicting identities and on the edge as a tourist setting. Such themes are related to diverse forms of art including painting, architecture, maps, photography and film. Topics range from the South African seaside resort of Durban to the French Riviera. The essays explore successive ideological mappings of the Jordan River and how Czech cubist architecture and painting shaped a new nationalist reading of the Vltava riverbanks. They examine post-Hurricane Katrina New Orleans as a filmic spectacle that questions assumptions about American identity and the coast depicted as a site of patriotism in nineteenth-century British painting. The collection demonstrates how waterside structures such as maritime museums and lighthouses and visual images of the water's edge have contributed to the construction of cultural and national identities.

The Inhabited Ruins of Central Europe D. Gafijczuk, D. Sayer, 2013-09-27 Focusing on Central Europe, the volume proposes a new paradigm of how culture works based on a model of inhabited ruins as a space where contradictory elements come together into continually renewed and frequently paradoxical configurations. Examines art, architecture, literature and music. World Architecture, 1992. Interiors, 1992-07.
