Czech Literature at the Turn of the Millennium Radim Kopáč, 2003 An Anthology of Czech Literature: 1st period, from the beginnings until 1410 Walter Schamschula, 1991 Old Czech Literature is one of the big unknowns of verbal art in Europe familiar only to a small number of experts Here for the first time within such a frame the attempt is made to offer a significant selection in both the original and English interlinear translation This selection spans all the major genres of fiction of Czech medieval pre Hussite literature All the texts complete or in excerpts are introduced and annotated Introductory bibliographies help the student and interested reader to obtain further information A Short Survey of Czech Literature František Chudoba, 1924 Anne's Bohemia Alfred Thomas, The first book in English on medieval Czech literature Anne's Bohemia is the first book in English to introduce the little known riches of medieval Bohemian culture Alfred Thomas considers the development of Czech literature and society from the coronation of Count John of Luxembourg as king of Bohemia in 1310 to the year 1420 when the papacy declared a Catholic crusade against the Hussite reformers This period is of particular relevance to the study of medieval England because of Richard II's marriage to Anne of Bohemia the figure around whom this book is conceived Anne's Bohemia offers a social context for the most important works of literature written in the Czech language from the earliest spiritual songs and prayers to the principal Hussite and anti Hussite tracts of the fifteenth century The picture that emerges from Thomas's close readings of these texts is one of a society undergoing momentous political and religious upheavals in which kings queens clergy and heretics all played crucial roles Expert but accessibly written the book offers an engaging overview of medieval Bohemian culture for specialist and nonspecialist alike
