The Mummy on Screen Basil Glynn, 2019-11-28 The Mummy is one of the most recognizable figures in horror and is as established in the popular imagination as virtually any other monster yet the Mummy on screen has until now remained a largely overlooked figure in critical analysis of the cinema In this compelling new study Basil Glynn explores the history of the Mummy film uncovering lost and half forgotten movies along the way revealing the cinematic Mummy to be an astonishingly diverse and protean figure with a myriad of on screen incarnations In the course of investigating the enduring appeal of this most Oriental of monsters Glynn traces the Mummy s development on screen from its roots in popular culture and silent cinema through Universal Studios Mummy movies of the 1930s and 40s to Hammer Horror s re imagining of the figure in the 1950s and beyond

Surviving Mummy Veena Masud, 2012-05 In spite of Mummy The story of my family began six generations ago when my maternal great great great grandmother left India in rather confused circumstances to end up as an indentured labourer in the West Indian Island of Trinidad Despite the challenges of being a single mother in a strange land she inspired her daughter Gainder through example and Gainder married an ambitious handsome young man New laws were made as slavery was abolished indentured labourers could now buy land and so Gainder and her husband prospered They bought large land holdings and had ten children to go with it Life in the late 1800s was happy and contented for the family as they melted into a multi religious and multi cultural society Gainder s five daughters married well to pliable husbands and her five boys were happy to live off their father s wealth Three generations later Gainder s granddaughter Little Sparrow married and began what was supposed to be a long and happy life with Victor a young man of means with two obsessions in his life his wife and cricket Three daughters later Little Sparrow died giving birth to a stillborn baby boy an event that had been predicted by a faqir thirty five years before Her daughter Carla my mother classy beautiful yet haughty and disdainful had a disastrous marriage to a wildly passionate man of humble means who loved her but could not leave his possessive mother They separated two weeks before my birth Mummy could not come to terms with her broken marriage and what people would say I became her punching bag and the reason for her lonely and miserable life I also had the terrible misfortune of being the spitting image of my father and no doubt destined to be a chip of the old block This book is a reflection on the first eighteen years of my life It was initially inspired by a deep need to reflect and put issues to rest as I entered middle age Apart from being emotionally therapeutic writing this book was a wonderful experience in self discovery I indulged in the memories that were sometimes happy sometimes thoughtful and reflective and at times so very sad Children are judgmental yet the most forgiving of human beings and while they may naturally love their parents unconditionally children may not always like what they see

Sleights of Hand Bradford Morrow, 2016-02-23 Essays fiction and poetry reflecting on truth and illusion in a world filled with deceptions both treacherous and benign Children deceive as do grownups and many are the moments when all of us even deceive ourselves People of every age and stripe whether rarely or often dissimulate bluff and beguile The writer who fabricates and populates worlds is a deceiver as is the artist whose triumph is to trick the eye to alter perception The honest magician s livelihood is based on deception so is the dishonest thief s And consider the great Russian poet Marina Tsvetaeva who wrote A deception that elevates us is dearer than a legion of low truths thus complicating the subject entirely This special issue of Conjunctions gathers a wide spectrum of essays fiction and poetry on the classic subject of deception exploring in original and thought provoking ways a world in which truth is a most fragile elaborate and mercurial thing Contributors include Edie Meidav Terese Svoboda Yannick Murphy Paul Hoover Bim Ramke Eleni Sikelianos Magdalena Zyzak and many others
