D Day Hero Csm Stanley Hollis Vc:

D-Day Hero Mike Morgan, 2011-08-26 Stanley Hollis won the Victoria Cross when on the 6th of June 1944 he single handedly stormed a German pillbox before going on to save the lives of two comrades D Day's only Victoria Cross winner Hollis was uniquely recommended for this coveted award twice on 6 June A tough working class rebel Hollis was no model soldier he was forever being busted to corporal for various misdemeanours only to win his stripes back again Few soldiers can have seen as much close combat action as Stanley Hollis He fought with the Green Howards at Dunkirk in the Western Desert in Italy on D Day and through France and Germany to the end of the war Seriously wounded and taken prisoner by the Afrika Korps Hollis was personally congratulated by Rommel then made a daring escape In Italy he was recommended for the Distinguished Conduct Medal and was later mentioned in despatches going on to undertake a dangerous undercover reconnaissance of the Normandy invasion beaches On 6 June 1944 Stanley Hollis was involved in two actions that led to his award During the primary assault Hollis single handedly stormed a German pillbox saving his company from certain injury and death and enabling them to open the main beach exit Later that day he saved the lives of two comrades trapped by heavy gunfire in a collapsing house Fully illustrated with archive photographs and ephemera this unique biography of a little known British Second World War hero shows the real man behind the heroic image Mike Morgan has received the Hollis family's full co operation and draws exclusively on personal diaries letters and other memorabilia D-Day Documents Paul

Winter, 2014-07-31 Published in partnership with the National Archives D Day Documents is a commemorative collection of previously unpublished documents marking the 70th anniversary of the Normandy landings This unprecedented book contains not only 21st Army Group intelligence reports on Omaha Beach RAF Photographic Reconnaissance prints and the ship's log of HMS Warspite but various other important official documents covering different aspects of Operations Neptune and Overlord Crucially this single volume brings together for the first time the war diary entries of all Anglo Canadian spear head units and regiments who landed in France on 6 June 1944 A unique publication which celebrates one of the most momentous days in modern military history D Day Documents will fascinate anyone with an interest in the Second World War as well as offering an invaluable primary source for military historians VCs of the North Alan Whitworth, 2015-10-30

Today the Victoria Cross remains the supreme British award for bravery It takes precedence over all other awards and decorations During its 160 year history since the first medals were given for gallantry during the Crimean War in the 1850s 1357 of these medals have been won and almost fifty of them have gone to the soldiers of Cumbria Durham and Northumberland Alan Whitworth in this carefully researched and revealing account describes in graphic detail the exploits and the lives of this elite band of heroes Within this group of Northern VC recipients are a number of outstanding names including Richard Annand who gained the first VC of the Second World War and Roland Bradford who was one of only four sets of brothers to have secured the VC He also had the distinction of becoming the youngest general in the British army But among the roll of the brave whose gallantry and self sacrifice are celebrated in these pages the reader will find the names and extraordinary deeds of many other men who were either born or bred or lived and died in the North They will also find the story of the youngest Victoria Cross recipient who won his award aged just nineteen The stories of these ordinary individuals who have performed some signal act of valour or devotion to their country will be fascinating reading for anyone who is interested in military history in general and in the long military tradition of the North of England The D-Day Landing on Gold Beach Andrew Holborn,2015-09-24 The Normandy landings of 6 June 1944 across five sectors of the French coast Utah Omaha Gold Juno and Sword constituted the largest amphibious invasion in history This study analyses in depth the preparations and implementation of the D Day landing on Gold Beach by XXX Corps Historians have tended to dismiss the landing on Gold Beach as straightforward but the evidence points to a different reality Armour supported the infantry landing and prior bombing was intended to weaken German defences however the bulk of the bombing landed too far inland and many craft foundered in difficult conditions at sea It was the tenacity of the assault units and the flexibility of the follow up units which enabled the Gold landing to secure the right flank of the British Army in Normandy Using detailed primary evidence from The National Archives and the Imperial War Museum this volume provides a substantial assessment of the background to the landing on Gold and analyses the events of D Day in the wider context of the Normandy Campaign

Wartime Courage Gordon Brown,2008 In these ten stories of battlefield and British home front action in the Second World War Prime Minister Gordon Brown pays tribute to the courage of the men and women who took up arms against tyranny and overcame it Some are stories of decisive action taken in searing heat of combat On D Day Company Sergeant Major Hollis of the Green Howards VC stormed a pill box alone overcoming its defenders and thus paving the way for a crucial advance to higher ground while Sergeant Hannah VC single handedly fought a fire in a bomber returning from a raid on invasion barges at Antwerp in 1940 as machine gun ammunition exploded all around him Others tell of great danger faced again and again Graham Hayes and Geoffrey Appleyard of the Small Scale Raiding Force Forerunners of the SBS carried out daring and innovative actions on enemy shipping in Africa and then the Normandy coast while John Bridge a physics teacher turned mine and bomb disposal officer repeatedly practised his nerve racking skills for six years always aware that there were no second chances if things went wrong Meanwhile behind the lines the sangfroid of clandestine operatives like Major Hugh Seagrim GC in occupied Burma and Violette Szabo in occupied France took on a daunting almost mysterious character With accounts of the risks taken by resistance fighters the bravery of Battle of Britain pilots the sacrifices of sailors at sea the determination of civilian defence workers on the home front and the daring rescue of Jews from certain death this gripping and inspiring book celebrates the courage of an exceptional generation Chronicle of the Second World War Jacques Legrand,1990 Victoria Cross Bibliography Alan Jordan,John Mulholland,Victoria Cross Research Group,1999 Many books have been written about the Victoria Cross and its recipients The first published work on the subject appeared in 1857 the same year as the first VC investiture A resurgence of interest in the 1990s led to the publication of numerous new titles but there was no comprehensive bibliography of the Victoria Cross until John Mulholland and Alan Jordan s first volume appeared in 1999 representing the efforts of a team of researchers in the UK Canada and Australia 0This second edition completely updates their research increasing the number of books listed annotated and cross referenced from 640 to around 1 100 and including all the Journals of the Victoria Cross Society Part I contains a listing of all key VC titles Part II lists non fiction and fictional books written by VC recipients and the index lists in alphabetical order every VC recipient with the date of the London Gazette citation Additionally it identifies the books in which the recipients are referred to significantly enabling the researcher to quickly identify key works 0The bibliography is an important contribution to Victoria Cross literature and an essential up to date reference guide for anyone with an interest in the decoration Sainik Samachar ,1960 Daily Mail Year Book ,1948
