Cry And Dedication Carlos Bulosan, 1995-05-04 This previously unpublished novel by the author of America Is in the Heart dramatizes the resourcefulness cunning and pain of the Filipino peasants struggle against a heritage of colonization first by Spain and later by the United States Set during the political upheavals of the 1940s and 1950s seven underground rebels old and young male and female intellectual and peasant set off across the Philippine countryside fueled by their outrage over continued U S domination They combat both internal foes from their past memories and experiences and visible enemies who view their clandestine work as a destructive force of communism As they confront danger and face physical and emotional sacrifices along the way their sense of mission conveys a profound vision of democracy and self determination Bulosan's exceptional narrative at once an allegorical and a psychological critique of the West's racism and delusion of supremacy portrays an armed rebellion that can represent many Third World peoples Literary and political Bulosan's work embodies his personal dream of equality and freedom When asked what impelled him to write Bulosan replied To give literate voices to the voiceless to translate the desires and aspirations of the whole Filipino people in the Philippines and abroad in terms relevant to contemporary history Author note Born in 1911 in the Philippines to a peasant family Carlos Bulosan was one of the first wave of Filipino immigrants to come to the United States in the 1930s After several arduous years as a farmworker in California Bulosan became involved with radical intellectuals and started editing the workers magazine The New Tide While hospitalized for three years for tuberculosis and kidney problems Bulosan began writing poetry and short stories Despite having little formal education he saw his talent for writing as a means to give a voice to Filipino struggles both in the Philippines and in the United States He went on to publish three volumes of poetry a best selling collection of stories The Laughter of My Father and America Is in the Heart the much acclaimed chronicle based on his family's battle to overcome poverty violence and racism in the United States The Cry and The Dedication carries on Bulosan's passionate satirical style P E San Juan Jr is Fellow of the Center for the Humanities and Visiting Professor of English Wesleyan University and Director of the Philippines Cultural Studies Center He was recently chair of the Department of Comparative American Cultures Washington University and Professor of Ethnic Studies at Bowling Green State University Ohio He received the 1999 Centennial Award for Literature from the Philippines Cultural Center His most recent books are Beyond Postcolonial Theory From Exile to Diaspora After Postcolonialism and Racism and Cultural Studies

Proto-Austronesian Phonology with Glossary John U. Wolff, 2018-10-18 This work divided into two volumes is the study of the history of words in the Austronesian languages their origin in Proto Austronesian PAN or at later stages and how they developed into the forms that are attested in the current languages A study of their history entails the reconstruction of the sound system phonology of PAN and an exposition of the sound laws rules whereby the original sounds changed into those attested in the current languages The primary aim of this work is to examine exhaustively the forms that can be reconstructed for PAN and also for the earliest stage after the languages began to spread southward from Taiwan For the later stages that is forms that can be traced no further back than to the proto languages of late subgroups we do not attempt to be exhaustive but confine ourselves to only some of the forms that are traceable to those times treating those that figure prominently in the literature on historical linguistics or those that have special characteristics important for understanding in general how forms arose and the processes that led to change In short the aim of this study is not just to reconstruct protomorphemes and order the reflexes according to the entries they fit under but rather to account for the history of each form that is attested and explain what happened historically to yield the attestations Volume 2 of the Proto Austronesian Phonology is divided into four parts and contains a glossary finder lists from the English translation a bibliography and an index Book Review Index, 2004 Every 3rd issue is a quarterly cumulation Peasant Rebellion in the Philippines Benedict J. Kerkvliet, 1972 Trends in Quantum Electronics A.M. Prokhorov, I. Ursu, 2013-03-09 The second International Conference on Trends in Quantum Electronics TQE 85 was held in Bucharest at the National Centre for Physics in September 1985 and brought together more than 350 scientists from 22 countries In accordance with the objectives established at the first conference which was held in 1982 in conjunction with the third International Summer School in Coherent Optics the second conference concentrated upon the central topics and chief directions of development in quantum electronics which stands out as an area of science and technology that is currently expanding vigorously On the other hand it was also apparent that TQE 85 was primarily influenced by the worldwide celebration in 1985 of the 25th anniversary of the laser a moment of prime importance in the development of many frontline fields including communications chemistry biology health care and materials processing A special session was devoted to this anniversary In keeping with the dynamic spirit of the conference the fine quality of the invited lectures and the other contributions set a high scientific standard for the proceedings Mention should be made of the posters that were presented throughout the conference These together with the exhibition of books and journals and a display of specialized scientific equipment did much to create a framework for effective communication and stimulating interaction to the benefit of all the participants Of invaluable help in the preparation of the conference was the collaboration of the International Scientific Advisory Committee
