Explain That Felicity Lewis, 2022-06 From the nation's most trusted news outlets comes an entertaining and authoritative look at the world around us Have you ever wondered if time travel is actually possible Or where the Australian accent came from Or what it feels like to have dementia If you're an inquisitive person who likes to understand how things came to be the way they are this collection of thought provoking explainers from The Age and The Sydney Morning Herald has got you covered Explain That answers some of the year's and life's most baffling questions Thoroughly researched and eloquently set out by some of Australia's finest journalists it provides nourishment for curious minds and fun facts to share with friends and family What do sharks want and why do they bite How do you win an Oscar Who thought up table manners Funny weird and insightful topics are inventively illustrated and embellished with diagrams pictures and factoids If you like to learn new things if you enjoy trivia or you want to reflect on some of the big questions this is the book for you Absorbing illuminating and always engaging Explain That is for anyone who has ever asked how and why

Travelling Home, 'Walkabout Magazine' and Mid-Twentieth-Century Australia Mitchell Rolls, Anna Johnston, 2016-07-06 Travelling Home provides a detailed analysis of the contribution that the mid twentieth century Walkabout magazine made to Australia's cultural history Spanning five central decades of the twentieth century 1934 1974 Walkabout was integral to Australia's sense of itself as a nation By advocating travel both vicarious and actual Walkabout encouraged settler Australians to broaden their image of the nation and its place in the Pacific region In this way Walkabout explicitly aimed to make its readers feel at home in their country as well as including a diverse picture of Aboriginal and Pacific cultures Given its wide availability and distribution together with its accessible and entertaining content Walkabout changed how Australia was perceived and the magazine is recalled with nostalgic fondness by most if not all of its former readers Drawing on interdisciplinary scholarship Travelling Home engages with key questions in literary cultural and Australian studies about national identity and modernity The book s diverse topics demonstrate how Walkabout canvassed subtle and shifting fields of representation as a result this analysis produces complex and nuanced readings of Australian literary and cultural history

Australian Literature to 1900 B. G. Andrews, William Henry Wilde, 1980 Lists sources by topic and author Made in Australia Alexandra Towle, 1986 The Adventures of Fatty Finn Bob Ellis, 1979 On Our Selection Steele Rudd, 2018-04-04 Reproduction of the original On Our Selection by Steele Rudd Historical Dictionary of Australian and New Zealand Cinema Karina Aveyard, Albert Moran, Errol

Vieth, 2017-12-26 Filmmakers have honed their skills and many have achieved critical and popular success at home and abroad as have actors and other crew American filmmakers and companies have found it cheaper to make films in Australia because wages and salaries are lower tax rebates have been attractive and the expertise in most areas of filmmaking is comparable to that of anywhere in the world At the same time Australian audiences still enjoy watching Australian films making some of them profitable even if this is a small profit when considered in Hollywood terms New Zealand filmmakers cast and crew have shown that they are equal to the world s best in making films with international themes while other films have shown that the world is interested in New Zealand narratives and settings Increased support for Maori filmmakers and stories has had a significant impact on production levels and on the diversity of stories that now reach the screen It has also helped create more viable career paths for those who continue to be based in their home country This second edition of Historical Dictionary of Australian and New Zealand Cinema contains a chronology an introduction and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has over 700 cross referenced entries on leading films as well as many directors writers actors and producers It also covers early pioneers film companies genres and government bodies The Dad and Dave Stories Steele Rudd, 1981 Tim Winton Lyn McCredden, Nathanael O'Reilly, 2014-08-01 Why is it that Tim Winton one of Australia s most popular and literary novelists has received little sustained critical attention This collection of essays examines the impact of Winton s work on our understanding of what it is to be Australian to be human to make and question meaning His novels and short stories are vernacular and lyrical optimistic and dark holding up a peculiarly Wintonesque mirror through which Australians and international readers differently can see themselves refracted The Oxford Companion to Australian Film Brian McFarlane, Geoff Mayer, Ina Bertrand, 1999 The Oxford Companion to Australian Film is an indispensable reference for anyone interested in Australian movies This Companion is a comprehensive guide to the people and ideas that have made Australian cinema It contains more than a thousand entries and was written by almost a hundred scholars and writers with expertise in different facets of Australian film No other reference book on this subject contains so many features succinct yet detailed entries on key figures actors directors producers writers designers composers etc incisive discussions of major films with credits and plot summaries longer essays on critical and historical themes a series of extended interviews specially prepared for this Companion with some of the luminaries of Australian film including Geoffrey Rush and Pamela Rabe over 100 illustrations portraits stills and posters thorough bibliography full list of AFI awards subject index providing easy access to relevant entries This Companion celebrates Australia's love of the movies and provides a comprehensive and entertaining account of its unique contribution to the art Australian Children's Books: 1973-1988 Marcie Muir, Kerry White, 1992 Volume two of a reference work listing all children's books by Australians This volume covers the period from 1973 to 1988 Entries provide physical descriptions dates publishers illustrations awards received and in some cases remarks on the content Entries are arranged by author Title and illustrator indexes are included

The Bulletin, 1889 The American West, 1968 Australian Writers, 1950-1975 Selina Samuels, 2004 Gives a picture of Australian literary production in the period from the accession of Robert Menzies through the dreary 1950s and the upsurge of the 1960s to the years of Gough Whitlam and his removal from office with Kerr's coup

Adopting the Track of Appearance: An Emotional Symphony within Dad Dave Australian Classics

In a world used by screens and the ceaseless chatter of quick transmission, the melodic elegance and psychological symphony created by the published word frequently disappear into the back ground, eclipsed by the constant sound and disruptions that permeate our lives. However, nestled within the pages of Dad Dave Australian Classics a stunning literary value overflowing with natural feelings, lies an immersive symphony waiting to be embraced. Crafted by a masterful composer of language, that charming masterpiece conducts viewers on a mental journey, well unraveling the concealed melodies and profound influence resonating within each carefully crafted phrase. Within the depths with this poignant examination, we shall discover the book is central harmonies, analyze their enthralling publishing model, and submit ourselves to the profound resonance that echoes in the depths of readers souls.
