Dada Et Moi:

Dada Willy Verkauf, 1957 Dada and beyond Elza Adamowicz, Eric Robertson, 2011 This collection of critical essays celebrates the subversive and challenging creativity of the Dada movement born in pacifist Zurich in 1916 in violent reaction to the First World War It examines the collective and individual activities that took place under the name of Dada in Zurich Cologne Berlin Paris New York and Barcelona and explores the various creative forms employed including text collage photomontage objects dance performance and film The authors suggest new ways of understanding the work of the most famous Dadaists while also casting light on the contribution of hitherto neglected figures Far from attempting to reduce Dada to a homogeneous movement or to define a unifying principle beneath and beyond the multiple directions taken by Dadaists this collection aims to respect the diversity and heterogeneity of the movement's collective activities as well as the specificity of its individual actors The Dada Painters and Poets Robert Motherwell, 1989 Presents a collection of essays manifestos and illustrations that provide an overview of the Dada movement in art describing its convictions antics and spirit through the words and art of its principal practitioners Smith College Studies in Modern Languages, 1924

Smith College, 1923 Reviews, Zeitschriften, Revues Sophie Levie, 1994 This study of six early twentieth century periodicals serves to refine the traditional image of the inter war journal as the pre eminent vehicle of artistic and intellectual renewal Every periodical has its own history but general themes are clearly identified Traces emerge of a common commitment to the internationalisation of the arts and we find early and unexpected discussion of Freud Chaplin and Joyce in Brussels and Berlin jazz in Vienna and Brussels Ezra Pound in the Netherlands and Belgium In contrast to this internationalisation are the ambitions of the various editors to play a significant role in their national cultures This tension between national and international influences was in the first instance stimulating and innovative Later as a result of political and socio economic developments the newly achieved openness and exchange were gradually diminished and finally disappeared as did the periodicals themselves

Crisis and the Arts: Exquisite Dada : a comprehensive bibliography Stephen C. Foster,1996 In examining Dada in the Low Countries Hubert van den Berg is faced with a complex situation that as much critiqued as embraced Dada Largely an individual affair and lacking the community center of Dada in Zurich Berlin and the other Dada capitals van den Berg focuses equally on Dada s reception and on its exercise Primarily a case of selective appropriation Dada in the Low Countries nevertheless possessed an international reach achieved in the relationships it posed between Dada and the Post World War I Constructivist International and De Stijl For the author Dada in Belgium and the Netherlands is less a case of its story than of specific cases of its use The involvement of Clement Pansaers Paul van Ostaïen Theo van Doesburg and German artist Kurt Schwitters figure prominently in the historical mapping of van den Berg s complex and elusive subject Dada Surrealism ,1984
