Dear Dad,

I'm looking forward to seeing you soon, but in the meantime, I thought you might enjoy a letter. No matter how much more time we get to share on earth, I know I'll see you again, and while we're temporarily apart, please keep talking to me, because I'll be listening for your guiding voice.

I want you to know that although sad me and mom will be OK. As you would want, we'll take care of each other, and Black Jack can give as many hugs as he wants with all the turkey he can eat.

I'm really blessed that you could live long enough to learn of my early steps with the Lord. You have been quite an example of Christian love in my life. It's good to know Christ has redeemed all my years of rebellion and ignoring Him.

I could not have been luckier than to have a dad like you. You taught me caring, compassion, and the power of forgiveness. Just as you dedicated me to be a child of God, I celebrate your dedication to the body of Christ and your continued walk with Him through the changing seasons of life.

I love you dad.

Your son
Ed Reilly
