Daily Home Health Care Journal:

Daily Home Health Care Journal Janice K. Gerber, 2004-05-01 When the Civil War ended T J Trager gave up soldiering and returned to Colorado Territory to build a cattle ranch Ten years later he viewed his ranch the Double T with pride but before that summer was half over things happened that changed his life For a time he knew boundless joy but when it ended he thought the pain and bitterness would go on forever His trail was rough and rocky uphill and down but never easy and seldom calm However what happened in 1902 became a flickering light that against his will brought back to life what he had been missing All he had to do was let it happen and maybe encourage it just a little Gerontological Home Health Care

Goldie Kadushin, Marcia Egan, 2008 Answering the urgent call for a textbook that deals specifically with adults in this setting Goldie Kadushin and Marcia Egan synthesize empirical research to extract practical applications for practice emphasizing the how to of gerontological home health care by discussing the field's most relevant issues The authors include chapters on home health care policies and funding cultural and diversity issues the contemporary challenges of the social work role in home health care the development of a relation the client's role in helping with care practice evaluations and individual and social system assessment and intervention Back cover CRIME IN THE HOME HEALTH CARE FIELD Brian K.

Payne, 2003-01-01 Over the past couple of decades individuals have come to rely more on home health care visits for their health care needs While there have been decreases in hospital stays and in the percentage of older persons living in nursing homes the consequence has been the emergence of a new type of occupational crime home health care abuse In considering offending in the home health care industry it is important to focus on crimes by and against home health care professionals This book is one of the first to fully address abuses occurring in the home health care industry Its intent is not to suggest that home health care is a dangerous field for workers and consumers rather the intent is to shed some light on the types of misconduct found in home health care Each chapter will include a wealth of examples to illustrate that these incidents actually are real devastating and significant At the end of each chapter the reader will find a series of discussion questions designed to encourage the reader to reflect back on the content of the chapter through the eyes of those involved in the response to home health care fraud Also included are Web site addresses where readers can learn more about the offenses and other resources to help demonstrate ways to deal with the problem It is intended for criminal justice officials health care professionals academics and researchers who want to better understand the nature of offending in the home health care industry It is also intended for use in criminal justice sociology and white collar crime courses exploring crime in the workplace as well as courses examining the home health care field Chapters include Home on the Range Where Health Care is Provided and Crimes are Committed Home Health Care Professionals as Victims and Witnesses Crimes by Home Health Professionals Violence Theft and Deception Responding to Crime in the Home Health Care Field Strategies Obstacles and Issues and Preventing Home Health Care Misconduct The Use and Development of Telemedicine Technologies in the
