Daily Life In Bible Times:

The Baker Illustrated Guide to Everyday Life in Bible Times John A. Beck, 2013-09-15 The authors of the Bible routinely employed mention of manners and customs from the ancient world in their inspired writing fully intending that the Lord would change readers with these images But modern readers often miss the full literal and figurative meaning of biblical imagery due to the distance in time and experience between the world of today and the world of the Bible This fully illustrated guide aims to restore clarity and vitality to these portions of God's Word in order to help readers grasp the full meaning of Scripture For example the entry on anointing defines the nature of this act and the connotations associated with it before illustrating how the biblical authors use the act of anointing in their communication with us communication that reaches its full maturity in Jesus the Anointed One Understanding manners and customs like anointing enriches our experience of reading the Bible and even helps us correctly interpret it This colorful guide clearly and succinctly introduces modern readers to daily life in Bible times The cultural practices of the past are fascinating on their own but even more so as they help us grasp the full meaning of Scripture

Everyday Life in Bible Times Arthur W. Klinck, 1995 Each chapter in this book on everyday life in Bible times contains a wealth of references to passages in the Bible Simple sketches and illustrations help depict commonly used equipment materials structures and raw goods

Everyday Life in Bible Times Margaret Embry, 1994

Our Church Mothers Gwen Ehrenborg, 2021-09-21 Our Church Mothers contains seven first person letters from formidable historical women who crafted for themselves roles of strategic importance in the history of Christianity You will become personally familiar with Katharina Luther first lady of the Reformation Susanna Wesley the Mother of Methodism Catherine Booth co founder of the Salvation Army Mary the Mother of Jesus St Clare best friend of Francis of Assisi Mother Teresa of Calcutta and Judge Deborah as a forerunner You will be moved as you read these heroines letters written to encourage today's believers as they share their thoughts feelings and daring experiences as they were led by the Spirit of God Learn how these female leaders and their partners in ministry overcame tremendous challenges to bear fruit for the Kingdom of God Living in different countries centuries and cultures they certainly share admirable characteristics in sacrificially choosing to address ignored human needs they observe with exceptional faith and action A common theme among these women is that not only their own children but their constituents as well recognized them as exceptional Mother figures and as spiritual leaders anointed by God Each of these women were addressed as Mother even though three of them never had children by birth The five mothers who were also wives ably supported their husbands as helpmates while pursuing their own spiritual calling None of these women allowed negative social pressures to prevent them from achieving their ministry goals All seven women have name recognition today yet people are surprised to learn that Mother Teresa was actually an Irish nun born in Albania who became a citizen of India Did you know the monk Martin Luther at age 41 took a wife who was a 26 year old former nun who bore him 6 children or the Salvation Army founders William and Catherine Booth s love story rivals that of the Barrett Brownings and that Judge Deborah was the Joan of Arc of her day The writing style in each letter indicates a desire for a personal friendship between the author and their modern day reader as fellow believers When these ladies share the fruitful work of God in their lives they clearly hope to encourage others to believe they too can positively make a real change in their world for the benefit of others and the glory of God Let these heroic Mothers of the Faith inspire and challenge you to fulfill your destiny and unique service to Christ
