Daily Life In The Age Of Charlemagne:

Daily Life in the Age of Charlemagne John J. Butt, 2002-11-30 Discusses daily life during the time of Charlemagne examining such topics as housing clothing food childbearing the economy leisure times and religion Converting the Saxons Joshua M. Cragle, 2023-10-06 Utilizing a crusading ethos from 772 to 804 AD Charlemagne King of the Franks waged war against the continental Saxons to integrate them within the growing Frankish Empire and facilitate their conversion to Christianity While substantial research has been produced concerning various components of Carolingian history this work offers a unique examination of Charlemagne's Saxon Wars as a case study for understanding methods of conversion used in the Christianization of Europe as well as their significance for subsequent conversion strategies employed around the globe Converting the Saxons builds on prior scholarly research is grounded in primary sources and is contextualized with a robust historical introduction Throughout the text particular emphasis is given to Christian encounters with paganism and the way paganism was interpreted confronted and transformed Within those encounters we observe myriad forces of coercion and incentivization used in societal religious conversion demonstrating the need for a serious reconsideration of the standard narratives surrounding Christian missions This book provides a scholarly and accessible resource for students and researchers interested in transhistorical methods of conversion the history of Christianity Early Medieval paganism Colonial religious encounters and the nature of religious conversion The Palladino Family in America Peter August Hoetjes, 2004 The family surname is derived from the Italian first name Paladino The first recorded Paladino was a medieval knight and the nephew to the Holy Roman Emperor Charlemagne 742-814 AD Many romantic fables are told of Charlemagne and his paladins The most famous of the paladins was Roland the favorite nephew of Charlemagne It is Roland the Italian bestowed by Charlemagne with the name Paladin who may be our famous ancestral noble Cavaliere that all Palladino's and modern day Pauldine's are descended from genealogy and objective interpretation of these topics can spell the difference between real family history and fanciful family folklore It is in a whimsical and fanciful vein that I portend that the Palladino and modern day Pauldine clan is in some way related to the famous Holy Roman Emperor Charlemagne and his equally famous nephew Roland the Paladin But who knows Perhaps a future Palladino explorer with the inclination and more importantly possessing very deep pockets might one day embark on the eternal quest for the truth and in the process even perchance recover Roland's magical sword Durandal God's Crucible: Islam and the Making of Europe, 570-1215 David Levering Lewis, 2009-01-12 From the two time Pulitzer Prize winning author God's Crucible brings to life a furiously complex age New York Times Book Review Resonating as profoundly today as when it was first published to widespread critical acclaim a decade ago God's Crucible is a bold portrait of Islamic Spain and the birth of modern Europe from one of our greatest historians David Levering Lewis's narrative filled with accounts of some of the most epic battles in world history reveals how cosmopolitan Muslim al Andalus flourished a beacon of cooperation and tolerance while proto Europe floundered in opposition to Islam making virtues out of hereditary aristocracy religious intolerance perpetual war and slavery This masterful history begins with the fall of the Persian and Roman empires followed by the rise of the prophet Muhammad and five centuries of engagement between the Muslim imperium and an emerging Europe Essential and urgent God's Crucible underscores the importance of these early world altering events whose influence remains as current as today's headlines
