A Paradise Lost Young-tsu Wong, 2000-12-01 Noted for its magnificent architecture and extraordinary history the Yuanming Yuan is China's most famous imperial garden The complex was begun in the early eighteenth century and construction continued over the next 150 years While Chinese historians and many Chinese in general view the garden as the paramount achievement of Chinese architecture and landscape design almost nothing is known about the Yuanming Yuan in the West A Paradise Lost is the first comprehensive study of the palatial garden complex in a Western language Written in a broad and engaging style Young tsu Wong brings the garden of perfect brightness to life as he leads readers on a grand tour of its architecture and history Wong begins by inspecting the garden's physical appearance and its architectural elements He discusses the origin and evolution of these structures and the aesthetics of their design and arrangement Throughout he refers to maps and original models of individual buildings and other existing gardens of the Ming Qing period including the well preserved Yihe Yuan and the Chengde Summer Mountain Retreat in Rehe A special feature of the book is its exploration of the activities and daily life of the royal household

Two Years in the Forbidden City Princess Der Ling, 2022-05-28 In Two Years in the Forbidden City Princess Der Ling offers an unparalleled glimpse into the enigmatic world of Beijing's imperial court during the last decades of the Qing Dynasty Written with an engaging blend of vivid descriptive prose and intimate narrative style the book functions as both a memoir and a historical document The literary context surrounding this work is particularly noteworthy as it juxtaposes the personal experiences of a Chinese noblewoman with the broader political upheavals of early 20th century China capturing the tension between tradition and modernity as Western influences began encroaching upon a once insular society Princess Der Ling born in 1885 to a Manchu family holds a unique position as one of the few women who gained access to the inner workings of the Forbidden City Her intimate relationships with figures such as Empress Dowager Cixi against the backdrop of her experiences as a lady in waiting imbue the narrative with authenticity This insider perspective is further enriched by her life journey which bridged two cultures allowing her to reflect critically on both her heritage and the Western world This compelling memoir is a must read for those interested in feminist literature history and cross cultural narratives It not only illuminates the complexities of life in imperial China but also invites readers to ponder the evolving roles of women in societies both past and present     The Athenaeum ,1892     Athenaeum and Literary Chronicle ,1912
