Daily Mirror:

The Daily Mirror David Lehman, 2000-01-04 Following in the footsteps of such poets as Emily Dickinson William Stafford and Frank O'Hara David Lehman began writing a poem a day in 1996 and found the experience so rewarding that he continued for the next two years During that time some of these poems appeared in various journals and on Web sites including The Poetry Daily site which ran thirty of Lehman's poems in as many days throughout the month of April 1998 For The Daily Mirror Lehman has selected the best of these daily poems each tied to a specific occasion or situation and telescoped two years into one Spontaneous and immediate but always finely crafted and spiced with Lehman's signature irony and wit the poems are akin to journal entries charting the passing of time the deaths of great men and women the news of the day Jazz Sinatra the weather love poetry and poets movies and New York City are among their recurring themes A departure from Lehman's previous work this unique volume provides the intimacy of a diary full of passion sound and fury but with all the aesthetic pleasure of poetry More a party of poems than a standard collection The Daily Mirror presents an exciting new way to think about poetry
