D. H. Lawrence and the body mystical Frederick Carter, 1966      D.H. Lawrence and His Body Mystical Frederick Carter, 1932      Apocalypse in British Art and Visual Culture in the Early Twentieth Century Thomas Bromwell, 2024-11-29

This book is the first substantial study of the presence and relationship with the concepts of apocalypse eschatology and millennium in modern British art from 1914 to 1945 addressing how and why practitioners in both religious and secular spheres turned to the subjects The volume examines British art and visual culture s relationship with the then contemporary anxieties and hopes regarding the orientation of society and culture arguing that there is an acute relationship to the particular forms of cultural discourse of eschatology apocalypse and millennium Chapters identify the continued relevance of religion and religious themes in British art during the period and demonstrate that eschatology apocalypse and millennium were thriving and surprisingly mainstream concepts in the period that remained vital in early to mid twentieth century society and culture This book is a research monograph aimed at an audience of scholars and graduate students already familiar with the core focus of modern British art and cultural histories especially those working on the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries or the concepts of apocalypse eschatology and millennium in Theology Sociology or other disciplinary settings It will also be of interest to scholars and students working on war and visual culture or histories of imperialism It will benefit scholars of early twentieth century British art demonstrating the intersection of art and religion in the modern era and critically qualifies the standard secular canon and narrative of modern British art and the general neglect of religion in existing art historical literature      Dictionary of Real People and Places in Fiction M.C. Rintoul, 2014-03-05 Fascinating and comprehensive in scope the Dictionary of Real People and Places in Fiction is a valuable source for both students and teachers of literature and for those interested in locating the facts behind the fiction they read In a single scholarly volume it provides intriguing insight into the real identity of people and places in the novels of over 300 American and British authors published in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries      Shakespeare, Spenser, Donne Frank Kermode, 2013-09-13 First published in 1971 This collection of essays discusses some of the central works and areas of literature in the Renaissance period of cultural history Contents include Spenser and the Allegorists The Faerie Queene I and V The Cave of Mammon The Banquet of Sense John Donne The Patience of Shakespeare Survival fo the Classic Shakespeare s Learning The Mature Comedies The Final Plays      Sufism and the Quest for Spiritual Fulfilment in D.H. Lawrence's The Rainbow Fereshteh Zangenehpour, 2000      Report of the Acting Director of University Libraries Stanford University. Libraries, 1927      Bookseller's catalogues Myers and co, ltd, 1891      Literary Modernism and the Occult Tradition Leon Surette, Demetres P. Tryphonopoulos, 1996 Criticism This collection of essays is posited on the conviction that mythical ecstatic and revelatory topoi in the modernist works of Yeats Eliot Williams H D Pound Joyce et al are motivated not by a sceptical and positivistic dismissal of the religious past as implausibly maintained by the New Criticism but rather these features arise out of a radical and reformist attempt to revive ancient pagan religious sensibilities In essence the modern occult amounts to a neo pagan piety that is polytheistic fleshly erotic and ecstatic opposed to a Christian or Jewish piety that is monotheistic otherworldly ascetic and revealed In short the occult manifests itself in modernist literature in what Nietzsche would have called a Dionysian guise confused because of its rejection of Judeo Christian sensibilities with a sceptical secularism Among the dozen contributors here are Peter Liebrechts John Coggrave Barry Ahearn Leonora Woodman M Anthony Trembly and Archie Henderson      Famous Modern Presses [Booksellers' Catalogues]. ,1929      The Publishers' Circular and Booksellers' Record ,1924      D. H. Lawrence David Herbert Lawrence,1970      Principles of Shakespearian Production with Special Reference to the Tragedies George Wilson Knight,1949      Dark Night of the Body L. D. Clark,1964      The Clique ,1956      The Colophon ,1940      Sales Parke-Bernet Galleries,1947
