Institutions, Production, and Working Life Geoffrey E. Wood,Philip James,2006 What is the link between working life and the nature of production on the one hand and the changing organization of the firms and institutions in which work and production take place In this book leading socio economic theorists analyse how these have changed over the last two decades They look at changing employment practices and systems of work and link these to political social and institutional reforms the degree of continuity and change in working life the attitudinal and behavioural consequences of recent changes in the world of work and the implications of these changes for worker health and well being The contributions incorporate macro and micro level analyses and draw on a range of different and disciplinary approaches including regulation institutional and labour process theory Contributors include Robert Boyer J Rogers Hollingsworth Mick Marchington Jill Rubery Ray Hudson Andrew Sayer Russell Lansbury Erik Olin Wright Jamie Peck Institutions Production and Working Life brings together a diverse range of studies which will be key reading for academics researchers and advanced students of industrial sociology the sociology of work political economy social theory industrial relations and critical HRM Discipline and Governmentality at Work Donald J. Winiecki, 2006 How we know ourselves how we are known by the institutions in which we work and how we are known by our co workers and our families is increasingly affected in a constantly changing network of technologies and strategies In the workplace these technological forms are lashed together into systems and strategies that reflect a form of rationality and allow norms to arise seeing representing and knowing work and workers These norms and forms produce distinctly modern forms of subjectivity truth and power to make workers into subjects Tertiary service labor is the fastest growing form of paid work in the economic catchment of the West Mediation of labor through computers and telecommunication is also increasing at a remarkable rate Nonetheless there are few detailed analyses of subjectivity in technology mediated tertiary labor Drawn from ethnographic research using post structural analytics this book describes how a collection of technologies is taken up in a common form of tertiary labor call centers to produce truth knowledge power and modern forms of subjectivity and social subjects It also challenges assumptions of Marxian and management theory by demonstrating that workers are neither dominated nor liberated rather how they are made responsible for and caught up in the apparatus that renders them as subjects Irony and Organizations Ulla Johansson, Jill Woodilla, 2005 Irony in the writings of these scholars from different parts of the world demonstrates once again that what we know is tenuous and at the same time closely intertwined with how we know and represent that knowledge And while each chapter approaches irony from a slightly different angle they share a common assumption that irony can be used to enhance practice
