Cyberscribes.1 Anne Hart,1997 Definitive guide to jobs in interactive media including Web virtual reality and online games Interviews with leading industry experts from National Public Radio Los Angeles Times The New York Times Internet World and others Tied in to summer 97 RealAudio and WebTV The Subject of Documentary Michael Renov,2004 The documentary a genre as old as cinema itself has traditionally aspired to objectivity Whether making ethnographic propagandistic or educational films documentarians have pointed the camera outward drawing as little attention to themselves as possible In recent decades however a new kind of documentary has emerged in which the filmmaker has become the subject of the work Whether chronicling family history sexual identity or a personal or social world this new generation of nonfiction filmmakers has defiantly embraced autobiography In The Subject of Documentary Michael Renov focuses on how documentary filmmaking has become an important means for both examining and constructing selfhood By looking at key figures in documentary filmmaking as well as noncanonical video art and avant garde artists Renov broadens the definition of what counts as documentary and explores the intersection of the personal and political considering how memory can create a way into asking troubling questions about identity oppression and resiliency Offering historical context for the explosion of personal nonfiction filmmaking in the 1980s and 1990s Renov analyzes films in which the subjectivity of the filmmaker is expressly defined in relation to political struggle or historical trauma from Haskell Wexler s Medium Cool to Jonas Mekas s Lost Lost Lost And looking beyond the traditional documentary Renov contemplates such nontraditional modes of autobiographical practice as the essay film the video confession and the personal Web page Unique in its attention to diverse expressions of personal nonfiction filmmaking The Subject of Documentary forges a new understanding of the heightened role and function of subjectivity in contemporary documentary practice Michael Renov is professor of critical studies at the USC School of Cinema Television He is the editor of Theorizing Documentary and the coeditor of Resolutions Contemporary Video Practices Minnesota 1996 and Collecting Visible Evidence Minnesota 1999 Writer's Guide to Book Proposals Anne Hart,2004-04-19 Here is your new author s guide to writing winning book proposals and query letters Learn how to find free media publicity by selling solutions to universal problems The samples and templates of proposals query letters cover letters and press kits will help you launch your proposed book idea in the media long before you find a publisher Use excerpts from your own book proposal s sample chapters as features fillers and columns for publications Share experiences in carefully researched and crafted book proposals and query or cover letters Use these templates and samples to get a handle on universal situations we all go through find alternatives use the results take charge of challenges and solve problems all in your organized and focused book proposals outlines treatments springboards and query or cover letters Tools for Mystery Writers Anne Hart,2002-03-11 Tools for Mystery Writers emphasizes the rules that work well to create best selling fiction Also included is how to write from personality preference research and how to write from the upward gush of your character's infancy A book of handy rules and research for all fiction writers of mystery suspense historical novels stories and scripts or plays Also included is how to write about relationship issues in mystery and suspense fiction How do mystery writers use personality research to develop and drive their characters and plots in novels and stories

Temporalities, Autobiography and Everyday Life Jan Campbell, Janet Harbord, 2002 This book offers the first sustained examination of the cultural relations of the American and Soviet avant gardes in a period of major transformation From the formation of the USSR in 1922 until its recognition by the American government American avant garde artists writers and designers watched the Red Dawn with fascination enthusiastically reporting on its post revolutionary cultural developments in articles and books and brought these works to an American audience in ground breaking exhibitions Americans also emulated and adapted aspects of Soviet culture as in the case of the New Playwrights Theatre a group that mixed Russian avant garde theatrical techniques with jazz vaudeville and slapstick comedy in plays about strikes and racial injustice Figures discussed include Louis Lozowick Jane Heap Frederick Kiesler Ralph Steiner John dos Passos Margaret Bourke White and Langston Hughes Watching the red dawn takes an innovative interdisciplinary approach considering these developments in architecture theatre film photography and literature and will be invaluable for students and specialists in these subject areas

It provides a new perspective on American avant garde culture of the inter war years The Beginner's Guide to Interpreting Ethnic DNA Origins for Family History Anne Hart, 2003 Genealogists are now using molecular genealogy comparing and matching people by matrilineal DNA lineages mtDNA or patrilineal Y chromosome ancestry and or racial percentages tests People interested in ancestry now look at genetic markers to trace the migrations of the human species Here's how to trace your genealogy by DNA from your grandparents back 10 000 or more years Anyone can be interested in DNA for ancestry research but of interest to Jews from Eastern Europe is to see how different populations from a mosaic of communities reached their current locations From who are you descended What markers will shed light on your deepest ancestry You can study DNA for medical reasons or to discover the geographic travels and dwelling places of some of your ancestors How do Europeans in general fit into the great migrations of prehistory that took all to where they are today based on their genetic DNA markers and sequences Where is the geographic center of their origin and the roots of all people Specifically how can you interpret your DNA test for family history as a beginner in researching ancestry and your own family history How to Safely Tailor Your Food, Medicines, & Cosmetics to Your Genes Anne Hart, 2003-10 Your DNA including your ancient ancestry and ethnicity has a lot to do with how your body responds to food medicine illness exercise and lifestyle but just how much And how do you know which DNA kits and gene testing are reliable and recognized Learning about DNA to understand and improve your health is now interactive and available to the average consumer not limited to students and teachers but to anyone else In the last few years genealogy buffs parents and anyone interested in DNA without a science background took an interest in DNA tests tests that reveal deep maternal and paternal ancestry No science background Don't worry There's a DNA summer camp near you or an educational experience in learning about DNA now available to the average consumer Educators scientists and multimedia producers have teamed up to teach you the wonders of DNA your genes and your lifestyle It looks like it's the consumer's job to bring people together through the media and through consumer's watchdog organizations professional associations and support groups The Writers Directory, 2013
