Nationalism in Late and Post-Communist Europe: The Failed Nationalism of the Multinational and Partial National States Egbert Jahn, 2008 The age of nationalism has often been declared a bygone era But it is by far not at its end In the years 1990 1993 more nation states than ever before came into being within a short period of time 15 hybrid ethno national states and three fragile states of federated nations Since then of the latter the Federal Republic of Yugoslavia fell apart and the other two are imperiled by ethno national movements State and ethnic nationalism have combined in each country in curious forms allowing for a gradual national consciousness which aims at multinational federalism or national autonomy as an alternative to national secession In this volume authors from the East and the West discuss the results of many years of research on nationalism as well as the new approaches to the understanding of a nation In addition the failure of the multinational states the Soviet Union Yugoslavia the partial national state German Democratic Republic and presumably also Bosnia and Herzegovina are analyzed After the breakdown of the multinational states and the polyethnic empires some decades ago the question is raised Will an integrated European Union succeed in finding an adequate answer to nationalism and the nationalities problem

Nationalism in Eastern Europe S. Bollerup, C. Christensen, 1997-06-17 Nationalism in Eastern Europe offers a thorough application of theories of nationalism in an analysis of the recent national revivals and conflicts in Eastern Europe The book discusses both microsociological theories from social psychology and economics and macrosociological theories from sociology and political science In a comprehensive comparative analysis these theories are applied to the late Twentieth century experiences of Estonia Moldova Croatia and the former Czechoslovakia In doing so the authors arrive at generalizable explanations of both the prevalence and the potential fatality of nationalism
