Lawrence, 1930 The Rainbow Annotated David Herbert Lawrence, 2020-11 The Rainbow is a 1915 novel by British author D H Lawrence. It follows three generations of the Brangwen family, particularly focusing on the sexual dynamics of and relations between the characters. Lawrence's frank treatment of sexual desire and the power plays within relationships as a natural and even spiritual force of life, though perhaps tame by modern standards, caused The Rainbow to be prosecuted in an obscenity trial in late 1915, as a result of which all copies were seized and burnt. After this ban, it was unavailable in Britain for 11 years, although editions were available in the USA. The Rainbow was followed by a sequel in 1920, Women in Love. Although Lawrence conceived of the two novels as one, considering the titles The Sisters and The Wedding Ring for the work, they were published as two separate novels at the urging of his publisher. However, after the negative public reception of The Rainbow, Lawrence's publisher opted out of publishing the sequel. This is the cause of the delay in the publishing of the sequel. The Rainbow (1915) by D. H. Lawrence (Novel) D. H. Lawrence, 2016-03-22 The Rainbow is a 1915 novel by British author D H Lawrence. It follows three generations of the Brangwen family living in Nottinghamshire, particularly focusing on the individual's struggle to growth and fulfilment within the confining strictures of English social life. The Rainbow tells the story of three generations of the Brangwen family, a dynasty of farmers and craftsmen who live in the east Midlands of England, on the borders of Nottinghamshire and Derbyshire. The book spans a period of roughly 65 years, from the 1840s to 1905, and shows how the love relationships of the Brangwens change against the backdrop of the increasing industrialisation of Britain. The first central character, Tom Brangwen, is a farmer whose experience of the world does not stretch beyond these two counties, while the last, Ursula, his granddaughter, studies at University and becomes a teacher in the progressively urbanised capitalist and industrial world that would become our modern experience. D. H. Lawrence: The Rainbow Frank Glover Smith, 1979 The Rainbow D.H. Lawrence, 2002-02-12 Selected by the Modern Library as one of the 100 best novels of all time. Pronounced obscene when it was first published in 1915, The Rainbow is the epic story of three generations of the Brangwens, a Midlands family. A visionary novel considered to be one of Lawrence's finest, it explores the complex sexual and psychological relationships between men and women in an increasingly industrialized world. Lives are separate but life is continuous; it continues in the fresh start by the separate life in each generation, wrote F R Leavis. No work I think has presented this perception as an imaginatively realized truth more compellingly than The Rainbow. The Rainbow by D. H. Lawrence - Delphi Classics

While tame by today's standards, The Rainbow for its frank treatment of human sexuality caused Lawrence to be prosecuted on an obscenity charge in England when it was first published. Through richly personal characterizations, The Rainbow deals profoundly with the very nature of human relations as it explores the sexuality of Ursula Brangwen and her mother Anna Brangwen. The Rainbow D. H. Lawrence, 2017-04-20 The Rainbow is a novel by D H Lawrence published in 1915. Sequel The Rainbow was followed by a sequel in 1920 Women in Love. Although Lawrence conceived of the two novels as one, considering the titles The Sisters and The Wedding Ring for the work, they were published as two separate novels at the urging of his publisher. However, after the negative public reception of The Rainbow, Lawrence's publisher opted out of publishing the sequel. Ursula's spiritual and emotional quest continues in Women in Love. Censorship: Lawrence's frank treatment of sexual desire and the part it plays within relationships as a natural and even spiritual force of life caused The Rainbow to be prosecuted in an obscenity trial at Bow Street Magistrates Court on 13 November 1915 as a result of which 1 011 copies were seized and burnt. After this ban it was unavailable in Britain for 11 years, although editions were available in the United States. Plot Summary: The Rainbow tells the story of three generations of the Brangwen family, a dynasty of farmers and craftsmen who live in the east Midlands of England on the borders of Nottinghamshire and Derbyshire. The book spans a period of roughly 65 years from the 1840s to 1905 and shows how the love relationships of the Brangwens change against the backdrop of the increasing industrialisation of Britain. The first central character Tom Brangwen is a farmer whose experience of the world does not stretch beyond these two counties, while the last Ursula, his granddaughter, studies at university and becomes a teacher in the progressively urbanised capitalist and industrial world The book starts with a description of the Brangwen dynasty then deals with how Tom Brangwen one of several brothers fell in love with a Polish refugee and widow Lydia The next part of the book deals with Lydia's daughter by her first husband Anna and her destructive battle-riven relationship with her husband Will the son of one of Tom's brothers The last and most extended part of the book and also probably the most famous then deals with Will and Anna's daughter Ursula and her struggle to find fulfilment for her passionate spiritual and sensual nature against the confines of the increasingly materialist and conformist society around her She experiences a same-sex relationship with a teacher Extrait The girl was at once shy and wild She had a curious contempt for ordinary people a benevolent superiority She was very shy and tortured with misery when people did not like her On the other hand she cared very little for anybody save her mother whom she still rather resentfully worshipped and her father whom she loved and patronized but upon whom she depended These two her mother and father held her still in fee But she was free of other people towards whom on the whole she took the benevolent attitude She deeply hated ugliness or intrusion or arrogance however As a child she was as proud and shadowy as a tiger and as aloof She could confer favours but save from her mother and father she could receive none She hated people who came too near to her Like a wild thing she wanted her distance She mistrusted intimacy In Cossethay and Ilkeston she was always an alien She had plenty of acquaintances but no friends Very few people whom she met were significant to her They seemed part of a herd undistinguished She did not take people very seriously She had two brothers
