Disputed Territories and Shared Pasts Tibor Frank, Frank Hadler, 2011-01-15 National historical writings in Europe traditionally deal with acts of aggression hostile neighbours and international conflicts across borders presenting history as a narrative of suffering and victories For centuries national histories have been constructed as sequences of battles and wars with war heroes playing key roles Yet major victories for any one nation

invariably cause tragedies for others Historians in different national communities have written comparable histories about their shared pasts in contested territories it is this phenomenon that we call overlapping national histories in this book Disputed Territories Shared Pasts focuses on the historiographical overlaps in Europe presenting many of the contested areas alongside state borders in historical regions between states and among ethnic groups and nations within states Sponsored by the European Science Foundation the present volume is part of the Writing the Nation series a major international project on the history of historiography in Europe Back cover Russia, the USSR, and Eastern Europe Stephan M. Horak, 1982 The Cambridge Ancient History Alan K. Bowman, Peter Garnsey, Dominic Rathbone, 2000 Volume 11 of the second edition of The Cambridge Ancient History covers the history of the Roman empire from AD 70 to 192 Vespasian to the Antonines The volume begins with the political and military history of the period Developments in the structure of the empire are then examined including the organization and personnel of the central government and province based institutions and practices A series of provincial studies follows and the society economy and culture of the empire as a whole are reviewed in a group of thematic chapters The States of Eastern Europe Francis W. Carter, David Turnock, 1999 The rapidly changing political situation in Eastern Europe has created the need for a survey of the political map This two volume work is compiled of essays on each country with consideration of the background to their existence as unitary states based on a sense of nationhood The aim is to profile each of the nations of Eastern Europe excluding the former German Democratic Republic and former Soviet Union successor states since the complexity of these two areas calls for a separate volume Volume I deals with the states of North Eastern Europe and Volume II deals with South Eastern Europe The essays offer a concise evaluation of the territorial base and the critical events which have been significant for the development of the national identity and the creation of the state Bulletin - Archaeological Institute of America Archaeological Institute of America, 1968 Beginning with v 5 1914 contains the annual reports of the Institute and the schools the minutes of the Council the directory and announcements of an official nature the non technical matter formerly appearing in the quarterly Bulletin has been included in Art and archaeology since 1914 Cf Bulletin v 5 Editorial note Women and Worship at Philippi Valerie Ann Abrahamsen, 1995 In this scholarly yet accessible book Valerie Abrahamsen offers new and rich insights into the religious roles of women at Philippi during the early Christian era showing that women still held spiritual power
