Dad In Demand:

Something Worth Saving Sandi Ward, 2018-12-18 Sandi Ward's shrewdly observed funny and wonderfully touching novel tells of a fractured family a teenage boy and a remarkable cat whose loyalty knows no bounds A boy and his cat It's an unconventional friendship perhaps but for Charlie and Lily it works beautifully It was Charlie who chose Lily from among all the cats in the shelter He didn't frown the way other humans did when he saw her injured back leg the legacy of a cruel previous owner Instead Charlie insisted on rescuing her Now Lily wants to do the same for Charlie She's the only one who's seen the bruises on Charlie's body If she knew who was hurting him she'd scratch their eyes out But she can't fix this by herself Lily needs to get the rest of the family to focus on Charlie not easy when they're wrapped up in their own problems Charlie's mother kicked his father out weeks ago and has a new boyfriend who seems charming but is still a stranger Oldest son Kevin misses his father desperately Victoria Charlie's sister also has someone new in her life and Lily is decidedly suspicious Even Charlie's father who Lily loves dearly is behaving strangely Lily knows what it's like to feel helpless But she also knows that you don't always have to be the biggest or the strongest to fight fiercely for the ones you love Praise for Sandi Ward's The Astonishing Thing A beautiful and touching look into the intricacies of marriage and family life all seen through the loving and unique perspective of the family pet Modern Cat: The Astonishing Thing feels like a bit of a miracle and we all could use a miracle Holly Chamberlin author of The Summer Nanny Dad in the Mirror Mass Market - Man in the Mirror Patrick Morley, 2005-04 An encouraging and thought provoking book winner of the Silver Medallion Book Award that gives ten ideas about how a father can make the biggest most lasting and most important contributions to his children's lives Macroeconomics (Canadian Edition) N. The Storyworld Accord Erin James, 2015 Storyworlds mental models of context and environment within which characters function is a concept used to describe what happens in narrative Narratologists agree that the concept of storyworlds best captures the ecology of narrative interpretation by allowing a fuller appreciation of the organization of both space and time by recognizing reading as a process that encourages readers to compare the world of a text to other possible worlds and by highlighting the power of narrative to immerse readers in new and unfamiliar environments Focusing on the work of writers from Trinidad and Nigeria such as Sam Selvon and Ben Okri The Storyworld Accord investigates and compares the storyworlds of nonrealist and postmodern postcolonial texts to show how such narratives grapple with the often collapsed concerns of subjectivity representation and environment bringing together these narratological and ecocritical concerns via a mode that Erin James calls econarratology Arguing that postcolonial ecocriticism like ecocritical studies has tended to neglect imaginative representations of the environment in postcolonial literatures James suggests that readings of storyworlds in postcolonial texts helps narrative theorists and ecocritics better consider the ways in which culture ideologies and social and environmental issues are articulated in narrative forms and structures while also helping postcolonial scholars more fully consider the environment alongside issues of political subjectivity and sovereignty The Co-operative Manager and Farmer, 1921
