Dada Movement:

Dadaism Dietmar Elger, 2004 In 1916 a meeting of artists writers migrants and opposition figures took place in the Cabaret Voltaire in Zurich Under the shadow of the First World War this was the starting point for the dissemination of the artistic and literary style known as Dadaism Dada Hans Richter, 2016-11-22 One of the best and most consistently interesting documents on this extraordinary movement that has been published The Sunday Times Where and how Dada began is almost as difficult to determine as Homer's birthplace writes Hans Richter the artist and filmmaker closely associated with this radical movement from its earliest days Here he records and traces Dada's history from its inception in wartime Zurich to its collapse in Paris in the 1920s when many of its members joined the Surrealist movement to the present day when its spirit reemerged in the 1960s in movements such as Pop Art This absorbing eyewitness narrative is enlivened by extensive use of Dada documents illustrations and texts by fellow Dadaists To celebrate one hundred years of Dada Thames Hudson is reissuing this unique document exactly as it first appeared in an expanded centenary edition This edition features a new introduction telling the story of how the book came about and an extended commentary that identifies Richter's sources and brings the study up to date for a new generation of readers Dada Magazines Emily Hage, 2020-12-24 Dada magazines made Dada what it was diverse non hierarchical transnational and defiant of the most fundamental artistic conventions This first volume entirely devoted to Dada periodicals retells the story of Dada by demonstrating the centrality of these graphically inventive provocative periodicals Dada New York Dada Dada Jok and dozens more that began crossing enemy lines during World War I The book includes magazines from well known Dada cities like New York and Paris as well as Zagreb and Bucharest and reveals that Dada continued to inspire art journals into the 1920s Anchored in close material analysis within a historical and theoretical framework Dada Magazines models a novel multifaceted methodology for assessing many kinds of periodicals The book traces how the Dadaists Marcel Duchamp Tristan Tzara Dragan Aleksić Hannah Höch and many others compiled printed distributed and exchanged these publications At the same time it recognizes the journals as active agents that engendered the Dada network and its thematic chronological structure captures the constant exchanges that took place in this network With in depth scrutiny of these magazines and 1970s Dadazines inspired by them Dada Magazines is a vital source in the histories of art and design periodical studies and modernist studies

Discoveries: Dada Marc Dachy, 2006-04 Explores the anti aesthetic anti object and anti art principles of Dadaism as revealed in the painting sculpture photography poetry language graphic design film performing arts and criticism of the early twentieth century Dada Presentism Maria Stavrinaki, 2016-04-20 Dada is often celebrated for its strategies of shock and opposition but in Dada Presentism Maria Stavrinaki provides a new picture of Dada art and writings as a lucid reflection on history and the role of art within it The original Berlin based Dadaists acute historical consciousness and their modern experience of time she contends anticipated the formulations of major historians such as Reinhart Koselleck and more recently Francois Hartog The book explores Dada temporalities and concepts of history in works of art artistic discourse and in the photographs of the Berlin Dada movement These photographs including the famous one of the First International Dada Fair are presented not as simple transparent documents but as formal deployments conforming to a very concrete theory of history This approach allows Stavrinaki to link Dada to more contemporary artistic movements and practices interested in history and the archive At the same time she investigates what seems to be a real oxymoron of the movement its simultaneous claim to the ephemeral and its compulsive writing of its own history In this way Dada Presentism also interrogates the limits between history and fiction "The" DADA Movement Marc Dachy,1990 Dada in the Collection
