A Critical History of Psychotherapy, Volume 1 Renato Foschi, Marco Innamorati, 2022-11-08 This unique book offers a comprehensive overview of the history of psychotherapy The first of two volumes it traces the roots of psychotherapy in ancient times through the influence of Freud and Jung up to the events following World War II The book shows how the history of psychotherapy has evolved over time through different branches and examines the offshoots as they develop Each part of the book represents a significant period of time or a decade of the 20th century and provides a detailed overview of all significant movements within the history of psychology The book also shows connections with history and contextualizes each therapeutic paradigm so it can be better understood in a broader social context The book is the first of its kind to show the parallel evolution of different theories in psychotherapy It will be essential reading for researchers and students in the fields of clinical psychology psychotherapy psychiatry the history of medicine and psychology

Anglican Evangelists

Martyn Snow, 2019-06-03 For twenty years the Archbishops College of Evangelists has affirmed and supported Anglican evangelists This book marking the College's twentieth anniversary relaunch relaunches the College with a clear focus on identifying and training new evangelists This book then marks a significant transition The thirteen authors work in a range of contexts and come from different traditions within the church Their focus in this book is less on the nature of evangelism and more on the calling and gifting of the evangelist In different ways they reflect on the questions what is an evangelist How should the church identify and affirm evangelists How do we train evangelists How do we enable evangelists to equip all God's people to witness to the kingdom of God The thirteen contributors are all practitioners and this is reflected in their range of experience and writing styles Some take a deeply biblical and theological approach Others reflect on their personal journey and learning Others offer practical insights and a helpful reframing of the initial questions All of them are fervent in their plea to the church to recognise the unique calling and gifting of the evangelist and reflect on how this gift is received and passed on within the church
