Public Relations Writing

James Mahoney, 2025-03-31 Public Relations Writing is an undergraduate communication and public relations textbook. It positions writing for public relations in the context of strategic planning and is based on traditional communication writing principles including for news and digital media. The book illustrates how writing for all public relations tools reflects the concepts that inform professional planning and practice. This book, based on the author's wide professional practice and tertiary teaching experiences, has been widely used in international undergraduate teaching and learning. This fourth edition continues to treat clear, concise and accurate writing for this profession as integral to all aspects of professional practice and as a skill that is not confined to media release writing. Among the book's strengths are the student exercises including international cases which are based on real world examples and references to ethical practice. This book provides a holistic approach to learning about writing in this profession. While its focus is on writing, this holistic approach which includes material on planning a communication strategy makes it an ideal text for introductory subjects at university as well as for specialist writing units. While it is primarily grounded in Australian practice, the book is written in line with accepted international approaches to public relations writing including the principles of journalism's news writing and contains case studies from other countries. This book appeals to audiences in early year university students studying public relations and marketing communication. It is also suitable for professional practitioners seeking to enhance their writing skills.

Managerial Communication Jennifer R. Veltsos, Geraldine E. Hynes, 2024-08-22 Managerial Communication focuses on communication skills and strategies that managers need to be successful in today's workplace. Known for its holistic overview of communication and focus on managerial competencies, it continues to be the market leader in the field. The Ninth Edition provides coverage of current topics like managing hybrid and virtual teams, ChatGPT and artificial intelligence, and empathic listening.

Invisible to Invaluable Jane Evans, Carol Russell, 2021-05-27 Our generation is something the world has never seen before. Women born between 1950 and 1975 were pioneers in all areas of work and society, yet we have become almost completely invisible except to our families and friends right at the time the world needs our wisdom, empathy and experience the most. OUR TIME IS NOW INVISIBLE TO INVALUABLE is a celebration of what midlife women do, who we are and what we are capable of. It's a rallying cry for us to change the world for the better. With personal stories, exciting research and insights from a cast of inspirational women, Jane Evans and Carol Russell's manifesto blows open the ageism that's sidelined midlife women at work and in society and sets out an empowering vision for a world where we can unlock our full potential. In a collection of chapters that range from the powerful to the playful and from the distant past to a brighter future, Jane and Carol show how there is no longer just young and old; there is a whole new middle that can be the best time of our lives. Even if we feel like we've hit rock bottom or have disappeared entirely, there is a way back. This book will remind you how far we've come, show you what we're made of and demonstrate how we can create a better future for all of us. Country Guide and Northwest Farmer, 1911 The Christian Union, 1886 National Stockman and Farmer, 1917 Blueprint, 2009
