Transformation and Empowerment through Education Raqib Chowdhury,2018-11-19 Transformation and Empowerment through Education challenges the normalisation of Western discourses as the optimal choice for empowering education The book aims to reconstruct our relationship with education and employs contemporary theories in order to understand some of the most persistent phenomena in contemporary education and its role in our lives Written by professionals with experience of a wide range of academic and institutional conventions and traditions and from diverse ethnocultural backgrounds this book effectively presents a global perspective on educational practices both inside and outside the classroom The range of topics covered includes equity access inclusivity social justice leadership and the internationalisation of teaching This book based on empirical studies using key methodologies is ideal for academics and postgraduate researchers interested in critical pedagogy educational studies and educational linguistics as well as educators and policymakers around the world Interdisciplinary and Intercultural Programmes in Higher Education Judith L. Green,W. Douglas Baker,2019-02-01 At the centre of this book is the exploration of how logic in use both leads to a particular understanding of the phenomena of interest such as opportunities for learning specific processes and shapes a particular view of what evidence counts in constructing claims The contributions brought together here invite readers to explore the processes involved in developing and studying educational innovations and to uncover the interdependent conceptual and epistemological actions processes and practices of instructors programme developers and students Taken together the book brings forward an argument related to the reflexive turn the understanding that researchers in the social sciences construct rather than find phenomena of interest Therefore this book creates the potential to examine not only the logic in use developed by different researchers but also to examine the complex nature of particular phenomena of interest to the researcher themselves This book was originally published as a special issue of Pedagogies An Educational Journal On Discourse Analysis in Classrooms David Bloome,2008-09-28 This book in the NCRL Collection provides an introductory discussion of discourse analysis of language and literacy events in classrooms The authors introduce approaches to discourse analysis in a way that redefines traditional topics and provokes the imagination of researchers For those who have limited knowledge of discourse analysis this book will help generate new questions about literacy events in classrooms For those familiar with this research perspective it will map diverse new approaches Talking Texts Rosalind Horowitz,2017-09-25 This volume examines how oral and written language function in school learning and how oral texts can be successfully inter connected to the written texts that are used on a daily basis in schools Rather than argue for the prominence of one over the other the goal is to help the reader gain a rich understanding of how both might work together to create a new discourse that ultimately creates new knowledge Talking Texts Provides historical background for the study of talk and text Presents examples of children s and adolescents natural conversations as analyzed by linguists Addresses talk as it interfaces with domains of knowledge taught in schools to show how talk is related to and may be influenced by the structure language and activities of a specific discipline Bringing together seminal lines of research to create a cohesive picture of discourse issues germane to classrooms and other learning settings this volume is an essential resource for researchers graduate students classroom teachers and curriculum specialists across the fields of discourse studies literacy and English education composition studies language development sociolinguistics and applied linguistics Pragmatics,1991 Negotiating Writing, Literature, and the New Literacies J.
