Discourse And Discrimination Rhetorics Of Racism And Antisemitism:

Discourse and Discrimination Martin Reisigl, Ruth Wodak, 2001 Discourse and Discrimination is a study of how racism antisemitism and ethnicism are reflected in discourse The authors first survey five established discourse analysis approaches before providing their own model and three case studies Drawing on a wide range of sources they question why racism and anti-Semitism are still virulent worldwide

Jewish Feminism Esther Fuchs, 2018-03-12 In the last three decades hundreds of books and essays have been published on women gender and Jewish Studies This burgeoning scholarship has not been adequately theorized contextualized or historicized This book argues that Jewish feminist studies is currently constrained by multiple frames of reference that require re-examination a self-critical awareness and a serious reflective inquiry into the models paradigms and assumptions that inform shape and define this area of academic interest This book is the first critical analysis of Jewish feminist scholarship tracing it from its tentative beginnings in the late 1970s to contemporary academic articulations of its disciplinary projects It focuses on the assumptions evasions omissions inconsistencies and gaps in this scholarship and notably the absence of debate contestation and interrogation of authoritative articulations of its presumed goals investments and priorities The book teases out implicit thinking about mapping direction and orientation from introductions to leading anthologies and engages critically with the few explicitly theoretical works on Jewish feminist studies contesting ideas that have become hegemonic in some areas and interrogating the limitations these theories impose on future trajectories in Jewish feminist studies Each chapter outlines the theoretical assumptions that inform salient publications in the field providing a close reading of scholarly texts that justify certain practices The book is divided into four chapters each of which focuses on a different frame of reference It outlines the way in which the various frames that have so far been imposed on Jewish feminism the ethnocentric liberal personal masculinist and essentialist have arrested its theoretical elaboration and articulation The book includes both interdisciplinary anthologies on gender and Jewish identity and disciplinary publications in history literature philosophy cultural studies and Holocaust studies

Antisemitism Susan Sarah Cohen, 1987

Difference, Deviance, Threat? Ineke van der Valk, 2002 This book examines the political discourse on ethnic issues in the Netherlands and in France It was written to highlight the socially constructed character and social effects of this discourse and its different variants and expressions and thus offer perspectives for evolution and change The underlying conviction is that discourses and thus the beliefs and knowledge that they contain are historically specific phenomena that are constructed in communities in particular times and places In other words knowledge is not as objective as it sometimes pretends to be it is affected by gender class ethno cultural origin and the political affiliations of its producers This book has been written for an international audience of academics politicians journalists policymakers and members of social movements engaged in the development of truly diverse societies and interested in the role of politics in attaining such an objective Ineke van der Valk is researcher at the Department of Discourse Studies Faculty of Humanities University of Amsterdam Prior to researching she worked as a community organizer with the migrant movement the anti racist movement and the human rights movement She has published on the history of the migrant movement in the Netherlands human rights in Morocco and the discourse on ethnic minorities in the Netherlands and France She also works as a consultant and trainer in the field of diversity management

Discourse and Communication Ma Luisa Blanco Gómez, Juana I. Marín Arrese, 2010 The present volume deals with different issues related to discourse and communication from a cognitive and functional perspective Some of the chapters focus on analysing different types of text such as advertisements conversation tales and songs and multimodal texts Others present a more theoretical approach to key aspects in the field like syntax politeness subjectivity and intersubjectivity

Qualitative Discourse Analysis in the Social Sciences Ruth Wodak, Michał Krzyżanowski, 2008-06-01 What can language tell us about society Looking at a range of genres from political speeches to internet chat this book shows how qualitative methods are used to analyse discourses throughout the social sciences The practical problems of designing and conducting discourse based research are solved in this key resource for all social scientists

Democracy Unrealized Okwui Enwezor, 2002 Recently democracy has been the watchword for a range of disparate yet apparently convergent contestations and negotiations within the global order Democracy Unrealized detailing the results of Platform 1 the first of four conferences held in conjunction with Documenta 11 presents a context within which the interpretive and conceptual regimes surrounding democracy can be reargued against the claims of a neoliberal ideology From this globalist viewpoint democracy described as an unfinished project requires no structural changes for it is complete in all its foundational features requiring only small technical adjustments and minor tinkering This is how the main Western democracies have seen themselves at best as incomplete implementations of equality and justice rather than as limited flawed dead ended and problematic In response to this presumption this book proceeds from the idea that realizing democracy is partly a matter of bringing to light what liberal democracy has promised but failed to deliver The emphasis here is on the potential for revision a reevaluation of values and the extension and creative transformation necessary to keep in step with 21st century globalizing processes This is democracy as an ever open essentially unfinishable project that in principle has fallen short of its ideals Discourses of Femininity? Amanda Haertling Thein,2005 Michigan State Journal of International Law ,2013

Crossroads of Language, Interaction, and Culture ,2002 Journal of Linguistics ,2001 Combating Racial Discrimination Erna Appelt,Monika Jarosch,2000-01-05 Xenophobia and racism are among the unsolved problems of our time Globalisation mass migration and unemployment as well as the need to invent new supranational identities create new problems of inclusion and exclusion The Uses of Argument Daniel Farr,Ontario Society for the Study of Argumentation,2005

Enjoying the Melody of Appearance: An Emotional Symphony within Discourse And Discrimination Rhetorics Of Racism And Antisemitism

In a world taken by screens and the ceaseless chatter of fast communication, the melodic beauty and psychological symphony produced by the written word usually disappear in to the background, eclipsed by the constant sound and distractions that permeate our lives. However, located within the pages of Discourse And Discrimination Rhetorics Of Racism And Antisemitism a wonderful literary value filled with natural feelings, lies an immersive symphony waiting to be embraced. Crafted by a wonderful musician of language, this fascinating masterpiece conducts visitors on a psychological trip, well unraveling the concealed songs and profound affect resonating within each cautiously constructed phrase. Within the depths with this poignant assessment, we shall discover the book is central harmonies, analyze their enthralling publishing model, and surrender ourselves to the profound resonance that echoes in the depths of readers souls.
