Discourse Of Enclosure Representing Wome:

The Discourse of Enclosure Shari Horner,2001-05-24 Examines representations of women and femininity in Old English poetry and prose Writing Women Saints in Anglo-Saxon England Paul E. Szarmach,2013-01-01 The twelve essays in this collection advance the contemporary study of the women saints of Anglo Saxon England by challenging received wisdom and offering alternative methodologies The work embraces a number of different scholarly approaches from codicological study to feminist theory While some contributions are dedicated to the description and reconstruction of female lives of saints and their cults others explore the broader ideological and cultural investments of the literature The volume concentrates on four major areas the female saint in the Old English Martyrology genre including hagiography and homelitic writing motherhood and chastity and differing perspectives on lives of virgin martyrs The essays reveal how saints lives that exist on the apparent margins of orthodoxy actually demonstrate a successful literary challenge extending the idea of a holy life A Place to Believe in Clare A. Lees,Gillian R. Overing,2010-11 Medievalists have much to gain from a thoroughgoing contemplation of place If landscapes are windows onto human activity they connect us with medieval people enabling us to ask questions about their senses of space and place In A Place to Believe In Clare Lees and Gillian Overing bring together scholars of medieval literature archaeology history religion art history and environmental studies to explore the idea of place in medieval religious culture The essays in A Place to Believe In reveal places real and imagined ancient and modern Anglo Saxon Northumbria home of Whitby and Bede s monastery of Jarrow Cistercian monasteries of late medieval Britain pilgrimages of mind and soul in Margery Kempe the ruins of Coventry Cathedral in 1940 and representations of the sacred landscape in today s Pacific Northwest A strength of the collection is its awareness of the fact that medieval and modern viewpoints converge in an experience of place and frame a newly created space where the literary the historical and the cultural are in ongoing negotiation with the geographical the personal and the material Featuring a distinguished array of scholars A Place to Believe In will be of great interest to scholars across medieval fields interested in the interplay between medieval and modern ideas of place Contributors are Kenneth Addison Sarah Beckwith Stephanie Hollis Stacy S Klein Fred Orton Ann Marie Rasmussen Diane Watt Kelley M Wickham Crowley Ulrike Wiethaus and Ian Wood Medieval Women's Writing Diane Watt,2007-10-22 Medieval Women s Writing is a major new contribution to our understanding of women s writing in England 1100 1500 The most comprehensive account to date it includes writings in Latin and French as well as English and works for as well as by women Marie de France Clemence of Barking Julian of Norwich Margery Kempe and the Paston women are discussed alongside the Old English lives of women saints The Life of Christina of Markyate the St Albans Psalter and the legends of women saints by Osbern Bokenham Medieval Women s Writing addresses these key questions Who were the first women authors in the English canon What do we mean by women s writing in the Middle Ages What do we mean by authorship How can studying medieval writing contribute to our understanding of women s literary history Diane Watt argues that female patrons audiences readers and even subjects contributed to the production of texts and their meanings whether written by men or women Only an understanding of textual production as collaborative enables us to grasp fully women s engagement with literary culture This radical rethinking of early womens literary history has major implications for all scholars working on medieval literature on ideas of authorship and on women s writing in later periods The book will become standard reading for all students of these debates The Displacement of the Body in Ælfric's Virgin Martyr Lives Alison Gulley,2016-03-16 The Displacement of the Body in lfric s Virgin Martyr Lives addresses 10th century Old English hagiographical translations from Latin source material by the abbot and grammarian lfric The vitae of Agnes Agatha Lucy and Eugenia and the married saints Daria Basilissa and Cecilia included in lfric s s Old English Lives of Saints recount the lives persecution and martyrdom of young women who renounce sex and in the first four stories marriage to devote their lives to Christian service They purport to be about the primacy of virginity and the role of the body in attaining sanctity However a comparison of the Latin sources with lfric s versions suggests that his translation style characterized by simplifying the most important meanings of the text omits certain words or entire episodes that foreground suppressed female sexuality as key to sainthood The Old English Lives de emphasize the physical nature of faith and highlight the importance of spiritual purity In this volume Alison Gulley explores how the context of the Benedictine Reform in late Anglo Saxon England and lfric s commitment to writing for a lay audience resulted in a set of stories depicting a spirituality distinct from physical intactness Claustrophilia Readings in the Erotics of Enclosure Cary Steven Howie,2003 The Journal of Medieval and Early Modern Studies ,2002 Parergon ,2003 Intentional Polysemy in "The Wife's Lament" Tamar Baskind,2002 Translatio Or the Transmission of Culture in the Middle Ages and the Renaissance Laura Holden Hollengreen,2008 This volume presents an impressive array of instances of cultural translation between nations religions languages genres and media It spans a chronological period that extends from late antiquity to the sixteenth century Translatio or the Transmission of Culture analyses multiple forms of cultural transmission the ancient and medieval arts of memory the propagation of saints cults mechanisms of social and spiritual discipline and the foundations of national identity to offer a rich investigation into the formulation of cultural influence in the Middle Ages and the Renaissance It explores the materials methods and contexts of translation through traditional philological and historical practices as well as foregrounding provocative new readings of familiar sources influenced by recent research into cognition ideology and gender With something for both the seasoned scholar and the student Translatio or the Transmission of Culture reveals some of the processes by which meaning is re made in the present from the materials of the past Medieval Feminist Forum ,2003

The Best Books for Academic Libraries ,2002 Books recommended for undergraduate and college libraries listed by Library of Congress Classification Numbers Old English Enigmatic Poems and the Play of the Texts John D. Niles,2006 Old English Enigmatic Poems and the Play of the Texts consists of a close study of a number of verse texts most of which are preserved in the Exeter Book of Old English poetry All of these texts are enigmatic Some are riddles others are riddle like in their manner of simultaneously giving and withholding information A number of them feature the literary use of runes The author approaches these poems as microcosms of the art of Old English poetry in general which particularly in its more lyrical forms relies on its audience's ability to decipher metaphorical language and to fill out many details that remain unexpressed The author's chief claim is that Old English poetry is a good deal more playful than is often acknowledged so that the art of interpreting it can require a kind of game strategy whereby riddling authors match their wits against adventurous readers New readings of a number of particular poems and passages are offered the whole collection of Exeter Book riddles is given a set of answers posed in the language of the riddler and some possible instances of creative runography are explored The book combines the methods of rigorous philology and imaginative literary analysis

Postcolonialisms Barbara Lalla, 2008 Incorporates some material from the author's thesis doctoral University of the West Indies Mona 1972 presented under the title The conceptualization of death in Old and Middle English poetry

Forthcoming Books Rose Arny, 2001-06 Place, Space and Identity in Six Old English "comitatus Poems" Keri Anne Wolf, 2010 Choice's Outstanding Academic Titles, 1998-2002 Rebecca Ann Bartlett, 2003 Ælfric's Kings Rachel S. Anderson, 2004 Ruling Women Stacy S. Klein, 2006 Klein explores how queens functioned as imaginative figures in Anglo Saxon texts as mediatory figures for negotiating sustained tensions and antagonisms among different peoples institutions and systems of belief Envoi, 2003
